COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS.

The Clerk presented the following communication submitted by the Commissioner of Public Works, which was referred to the Committee on Harbors, Wharves and Bridges:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, October 18, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—Mr. W. N. Eisendrath owner of property on the east side of the North Branch of the Chicago River next south of Division street, has submitted the accompanying blue print to the Commissioner of Public Works, showing the present dock line and the line on which he asks for permission to construct a new dock.

The records of the Department of Public Works show that there is now land beyond the legal lot lines, making it appear as an encroachment, and to allow any construction extending further into the water area would necessarily narrow the river channel, which is contrary to recommendations for the improvement and development of the river.

I would suggest that the whole matter be referred to the Committee on Harbors, Wharves and Bridges.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) JOHN J. HANBERG,
Commissioner of Public Works.
PAUL REDIESKE,
Deputy Commissioner.

ALSO,

A communication as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, October 18, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—After due advertisement a contract was awarded and entered into by the city with John A. McGarry & Company for grading and paving portions of 51st avenue, Forest Glen avenue and Higgins road at ninety-six cents per square yard for approximately 20,000 square yards, said company being the lowest bidder.

A reservation is made in said contract to the Commissioner of Public Works to designate certain brands of liquid filler to be spread upon the pavement contracted for. The Corporation Counsel advises me that the city is without authority to specify patent or proprietary pavements in contracts let upon advertisement and that no such authority can be reserved to one of its officers.

In order to legalize the letting of this contract I have had prepared a suitable form of order for this purpose, which I herewith enclose, and respectfully ask the passage of the same by at least a two-thirds vote of your Honorable body.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) JOHN J. HANBERG,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SPECIFICATIONS FOR PORTLAND CEMENT CONCRETE SIDEWALKS.

SECTION 2062. Walks Laid on Filling) A sub-grade shall be first prepared by cutting down or filling up the surface of the ground to a grade which shall be fourteen (14") inches below final sidewalk grade.

Wherever filling is necessary to bring the foundation to sub-grade, such filling shall be composed of earth, or other material equally as good for filling purposes, free from animal or vegetable matter, placed in such a manner as to leave a berm of one (1') foot on each side of and flush with the top of the completed walk (except where the walks are laid full-width of the sidewalk space), and shall slope to the natural surface of the ground at the rate of one and one-half (1½') feet horizontal to one (1') foot vertical.

Where necessary the foundation shall be compacted by wetting, rolling or ramming until solid and unyielding.

Soft and spongy places not affording a firm foundation shall be dug out and filled with earth, or other material equally as good for filling purposes, free from animal or vegetable matter, thoroughly compacted.

Upon the sub-grade thus prepared shall be placed a layer of cinders (or other material equally as good for the purposes of a foundation), which shall be nine (9) inches in depth after being thoroughly compacted. Upon said foundation shall be placed a layer of Portland cement concrete four and one-fourth (4¼) inches in thickness; said concrete shall consist of one (1) part of cement equal in quality to the best Portland cement, two and one-half (2½) parts of clean torpedo sand, of sizes ranging from one-eighth (⅛) of an inch down to the finest, and five (5) parts of crushed limestone, or other stone equally as good for concrete purposes, washed gravel, or clean, crushed, air-cooled slag of the best quality, all of which shall be free from dust, dirt or other foreign substances, and of sizes measuring not less than one-quarter (¼) of an inch or more than one (1) inch in any dimension; said cement and sand shall be thoroughly mixed dry, into which shall be incorporated the five (5) parts of stone, gravel or slag, as specified above, after which said mixture shall be moistened with water and the whole mass thoroughly mixed and placed on said foundation and rammed until solid. Before the layer last described has set a finishing layer of Portland cement concrete three-fourths (¾) of an inch in thickness shall be placed thereon; said layer shall consist of two (2) parts of cement equal in quality to the best Portland cement and three (3) parts of torpedo sand or crushed granite screenings, thoroughly mixed dry, then moistened with water and mixed again to form a mortar, which shall be spread in such a manner as to insure a smooth and even surface after being thoroughly troweled.

A space of one and one-half (1½) inches must be left between all walks and the curb at street and alley intersections to provide for expansion.

All mixing to be done on water-tight platforms.

All work on 5, 6, 10, 12, 15, 18, 20, 24 and 25-foot walks to be laid out in blocks five feet by six feet in size; on all other widths of walk the stones to be of uniform size and to have a surface of not less than twenty-four square feet nor more than thirty-six square feet.

All walks, except full-width walks, to be laid on a line one foot from and parallel with the lot line, unless otherwise ordered by special ordinance; provided, however, that no ordinance for special sidewalk line shall be passed that does not cause a uniform alignment of sidewalks on both sides of the street for a distance of not less than 1,200 lineal feet, or where a definite sidewalk line is established in a block by cement sidewalks laid prior to March 23rd, 1904, when the line established by the walks already laid shall be followed for the remainder of the block.

AN ORDINANCE

Amending Sections 1573 and 1582 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905, relating to pawnbrokers.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That Section 1573 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be, and the same is, hereby amended by adding thereto two new sections to be known as Sections 1573a and 1573b, which shall read respectively as follows:

The following communication from the Corporation Counsel accompanied the foregoing ordinance:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
CHICAGO, October 1, 1909.

In re pawnbroker's ordinance.

Hon. Wm. E. Dever, Alderman Seventeenth Ward:

DEAR SIR—At its last session, the General Assembly passed a new Act relating to pawnbrokers, incorporating therein these provisions not contained in the ordinances of the City of Chicago or in the former statute on this subject. First: The requirement that the rates of interest be kept posted in the pawnbroker's place of business. Second: That no personal property should be sold within one year from the time when the pawner or pledger shall make default, unless by the written consent of such pawner or pledger.

I therefore submit copy of an ordinance so amending two sections of the Code of 1905 relating to pawnbrokers as to include the foregoing new statutory provisions.

I have also inserted a section known as Section 1573A which is included in the language used in the statute and defines the rate of interest which the pawnbroker may charge. This section was omitted in the Code of 1905, and in my judgment should be included in the Code in the course of preparation.

Very truly yours,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

SECTION 1. That Section 1924b of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be, and the same is, hereby amended by striking out therefrom the following language:

"And when any hand-bill, sign, poster, advertisement or notice of any kind shall be found pasted, posted, nailed or otherwise fastened on any curbstone, flagstone, or any other portion or part of any sidewalk, or upon any tree, lamp post, hitching post, telegraph pole, telephone pole, * * * hydrant, bridge, pier, or upon any private wall, window, door, gate, fence, advertising board or sign, or other private building or structure in any way advertising any person, firm or corporation, the finding of such hand-bill, sign, poster, advertisement or notice, shall be prima facie evidence that it was pasted, posted, nailed or otherwise fastened contrary to the provisions of this section by the person, firm or corporation, thereby advertised."

so that this section when so amended will read as follows:

"1924b. Bill Posting—Where Prohibited, Etc.) It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to paste, post or fasten any hand-bill, poster, advertisement or notice of any kind whatsoever, or cause the same to be done, on any curbstone, flagstone, or any other portion or part of any side-

In re ordinance amending Section 1924b of the Code.

Hon. Wm. E. Dever, Chairman Judiciary Committee:

DEAR SIR—Enclosed herewith please find an ordinance amending Section 1924b of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905, by striking out certain language which makes the finding of a poster or advertisement posted in any prohibited place prima facie evidence of a violation of the ordinance by the person advertised. This is an attempt to establish a rule of evidence by a municipal ordinance. No such rule has been established by the common law or by the Illinois statutes. In my opinion, this part of Section 1924b is invalid. It is well settled that "in prosecutions to enforce ordinances the ordinary rules of evidence apply, except so far as specially modified by statute; and it is not competent for a municipal corporation without express authority to make or alter the rules of evidence or of law."

The City Council has no power under the city charter or under any other Act of the General Assembly to make, change or alter the rules of evidence; the General Assembly alone has such power.

Ald. McKenna presented the following resolution, which was ordered published and placed on file:

"WHEREAS, The Chicago and Alton Railway Company, having failed to elevate its tracks from Oakley avenue to California avenue, as ordained in an ordinance passed by the City Council in 1900; and

WHEREAS, The 10,000 people residing in Brighton Park, in the Fifth Ward (one of the oldest suburbs of the City of Chicago), having been lenient and submissive in the past, tolerating for years the abominable impositions of the Chicago and Alton Company with feeble protest, feel that it is their right to bring this matter before your Honorable Body, learning through authoritative sources that said company is seeking further extension of time in completing the elevation of its tracks, which has been delayed these several years through subterfuge and litigation; and

WHEREAS, The Chicago and Alton, having had ample time to complete its track elevation in accordance with said ordinance, and as two extensions of time have been granted said company, much to the detriment of this community; and

WHEREAS, The Chicago and Alton has not shown any inclination to carry out any of its promises to the City of Chicago, namely, to make safe and to improve the conditions which exist at the different street crossings within the limits above mentioned; and

WHEREAS, Our local fire station being located on the south side of said Chicago and Alton tracks, and as most of our dwellings are of frame, it can readily be seen that if a fire were to start on the north side of said tracks, great loss would be sustained before fire appartus could arrive on the scene; and

WHEREAS, It being necessary for hundreds of school children to cross these tracks to and from school, and as only three streets are open between Western and Kedzie avenues, one of which, namely, California avenue, is practically blocked by fourteen switch tracks, crossing each other in every conceivable way, so that one's life is greatly jeopardized who undertakes to cross at this point; and

WHEREAS, The churches and parochial schools are situated on the south side of the Alton's tracks and the Burroughs public school is situated on the north side of said tracks on Washtenaw avenue, these several hundred children must daily cross these fourteen tracks on California avenue or pass through a "hole in the ground" on Washtenaw, which is closed to public traffic except a "temporary subway depression" 5 feet and 10 inches high and 8 feet wide, and this "temporary subway" has been tolerated for nearly seven years, from which grease, oil and dirt drop from the tracks above, and beneath is slush and filth ankle deep; and

WHEREAS, These conditions having existed all these years, and having been brought to the notice of the Chicago and Alton officials from time to time without action, the result is that property values have greatly depreciated in this locality and our local business men have sustained incalculable loss; and

WHEREAS, The Chicago and Alton Railroad is a menace to life, a detriment to business, ruinous to property and a nuisance in general; and

WHEREAS, The people of this community having repeatedly asked for relief without securing results, and as California avenue is known as one of the most dangerous grade crossings in the City of Chicago, and as the Chicago and Alton has already secured two years' extensions of time from the City Council through misrepresentation; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we respectfully urge your Honorable Body to grant the prayer of the people of this section of the City, situated in the Fifth Ward, and positively refuse the Chicago and Alton Company any further extension of time, but compel said railroad company to immediately elevate its tracks and thereby eliminate for all time the fearful and deplorable conditions which now exist in this locality, and at the same time show this railroad company that our representatives in the City Council of the City of Chicago will protect the people's right; and, further, be it

Resolved, That said committee present a copy of these resolutions to the several daily newspapers for publication so that our fellow citizens throughout the city may know of and see the justness of our prayer."

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
October 26, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—At your meeting held October 18, 1909, you were pleased to pass an order instructing the Corporation Counsel "to render an opinion as to whether the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company or any other public utility company have the arbitrary right to tear up the streets of the City of Chicago."

Complying with your instruction we have to say that, in our judgment, neither this nor any other company has the "arbitrary right to tear up streets." This company has been authorized by the City to lay and maintain its mains and pipes in the streets and alleys of the City, and under the decisions of our Supreme Court the ordinance granting that authority has become a contract, but it is not a contract by which the company is authorized to inflict any injury upon any other company or person lawfully maintaining any structure within the street; neither is it a contract by which the company is authorized to destroy the street. The City can, even today, impose reasonable regulations upon this company and require the company to obey them, even though such regulations may, to some extent, hamper the company in its operations.

Section 2140 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 provides that any corporation desiring to lay any pipe or any other underground work in any paved street more than thirty days after the confirmation of a special assessment for paving such street, shall lay or do the same between the lot and curb lines or in the nearest alley.

An enforcement of this section would prevent the company from destroying the pavement.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) WM. D. BARGE,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Approved:

EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE,
Corporation Counsel.

INSPECTOR OF GAS METERS AND GAS.

The Clerk presented the following report from the Inspector of Gas Meters and Gas, which was ordered published and placed on file:

BUREAU OF GAS INSPECTION,
CHICAGO, October 20, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—In accordance with the provisions of an ordinance amending an ordinance relating to the quality of gas and providing for pressure regulation, passed February 15, 1909, and which also provides that "Should such tests disclose that the gas is below the standard required by the ordinances of the City of Chicago, the Gas Inspector shall report such fact to the City Council through the City Clerk at the next regular meeting of the City Council after such fact is determined by said Gas Inspector," I beg to state that I have caused the gas to be tested at the fourth floor, No. 76 Fifth avenue, of which the following is a copy of the Chief Gas Tester's report:

"I wish to report that according to yesterday's (October 19th), tests, the candle power of the gas received at this station, 76 Fifth avenue, was observed as 21.15 c. p. as the average of two regular determinations made at 4:30 and 5:00 P. M., October 19, 1909.

"Our apparatus is in good order and recently standardized against the best standards at present in possession of this office, but may easily be in error to the extent of 1 per cent or 0.21 c. p.

"Tests on October 18th showed just 22.00 c. p., while a test this morning shows 23.02 c. p.

"The calorific value was 654 B. T. U. well above the legal limit. From our results I believe gas below standard in candle power was supplied on October 19, 1909."

A copy of this report has been forwarded to the gas company.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) WM. B. BURKE,
Gas Inspector.

AN ORDINANCE.

be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

All fines paid in money imposed through the agency of any humane society (or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals and children) under the ordinances of the city, shall, when collected, be transferred by the City Comptroller to the credit of such societies to be applied to their support, and all fines imposed through the act, agency or prosecution of any special policeman appointed on the application of such society shall be regarded as imposed through the agency of such society; provided, however, that such society shall be incorporated under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois.

The General Superintendent of Police shall keep a correct list of all persons so appointed by him and he may remove or discharge any of the persons so appointed at any time without assigning any cause therefor, and he may appoint other persons upon similar application and recommendation to take the place of the person or persons so removed or discharged.

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
CHICAGO, October 15, 1909.

In re Code revision, Sections 38, 1782 and 1784.

Hon. William E. Dever, Chairman, Judiciary Committee:

DEAR SIR—Enclosed herewith please find an ordinance amending the aforesaid three sections of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905.

These sections relate, first, to fines paid through the agency of humane societies; second, to the appointment of special policemen by the General Superintendent of Police as humane society officers, and, third, provision for compensation of such officers.

At the time of the adoption of the Code of 1905 there was in the State of Illinois but one incorporated humane society, namely: The Illinois Humane Society. Since the publication of the Code The Anti-Cruelty Society was incorporated, and this society now desires to secure the benefits of the various ordinances of the city, inasmuch as by operation of statutory provision all Humane Societies incorporated under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois are entitled to participate in the fines imposed through their act, agency or prosecution. Section 28 as it stands today is doubtless invalid inasmuch as the section discriminates in favor of one Humane Society and against another. The same criticism is true of Section 1782, and anticipating the correction of these provisions it will be necessary to also amend Section 1784 which mentioned only The Illinois Humane Society in connection with the compensation of special policemen.

I respectfully request the passage of this ordinance for the foregoing reasons.

Very truly yours,

This amendment is requested by Mr. George L. The following communication from the Corporation Counsel accompanied the foregoing ordinance:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
CHICAGO, October 15, 1909.

In re Code revision, amendment of certain sections of the second-hand and junk dealers license ordinance.

Hon. Wm. E. Dever, Chairman, Judiciary Committee:

DEAR SIR—Enclosed herewith please find ordinance amending Section 2027, Section 2030, as amended, and Section 2049 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905. The said amendment of the first of the foregoing sections arises by reason of the inability of the city to compel dealers in certain second-hand articles to take out a license for such purpose, inasmuch as the ordinance expressly limits the license required to dealers in second-hand furniture, clothes or other articles.

The charter power gives the city the right to license and regulate second-hand stores and for this reason we have so amended the section as to bring within its terms any dealer in second-hand articles.

A number of the provisions of Section 2030, as amended, are unquestionably invalid. I have redrawn this section so as to cure the defects existing therein.

Section 2049 of the Code was declared to be invalid by Judge Walker of the Municipal Court in an opinion handed down by him last week, in which he held that inasmuch as the charter power provided that the city could prohibit the receiving or purchasing of any article from any minor without the written consent of their guardians that the city could not adopt an ordinance which merely prohibited (a) the purchasing or receiving of goods from minors under eighteen (except old rags and waste paper), and (b) which did not permit the purchasing or receiving from minors with the written consent of their guardians.

For the foregoing reasons I respectfully request the adoption of the submitted amendments of these sections.

Very truly yours,

Ald. Snow moved that the said petition be referred to the Committee on Building Department.

The motion prevailed.

ALSO,

A communication as follows:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHICAGO, November 1, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—By virtue of authority conferred upon me by your Honorable Body at the meeting held on July 6th, 1909, I have appointed, and transmit herewith the names of the members of, the "Chicago Plan" Commission, which Commission is to take up and study further the problems involved in said "Chicago Plan" relating to future public improvements in the City of Chicago, with a view to determining and recommending to your Honorable Body whether any part or all parts of said "Chicago Plan" should be adopted by the City of Chicago as a line of policy to be followed in making public improvements during the coming years.

In appointing this commission I desire to emphasize again a point made in my message of July 6, 1909, that the "Chicago Plan" is not put forward as a hard and fast plan to be accepted or rejected as it stands; that it does not contemplate the remodeling of Chicago in a year or a decade, and that it is presented simply as a suggestion, but a carefully worked out and comprehensive suggestion, of how to make Chicago a better city to work in, to do business in and to live in, by having public improvements made, as necessity for public improvements arises from year to year, in accordance with a preconceived symmetrical plan.

The men who formulated the "Chicago Plan" have put into it three years of unselfish effort and about $100,000 of their own money. The result is a plan that represents the best efforts of the best city-planning talent in America, supplemented by the concentrated judgment of practical business men who, in looking toward making Chicago a more attractive city, have never lost sight of its future-development possibilities along commercial and industrial lines. To the end that the public spirited work of these men may receive thorough consideration, I have endeavored to make the membership of this "Chicago Plan" Commission as representative as possible of every section and every element in our population.

To secure at all times adequate representation on this commission of the city government and of all other locally interested governmental agencies, I would respectfully recommend that the persons appointed because of the official positions which they now hold, to-wit: Members of the City Council, chairmen of Council committees, the Corporation Counsel, Commissioner of Public Works, City Engineer, Health Commissioner, President of the Board of Education and President of the Public Library Board of the City of Chicago, the President of the County Board, the Presidents of the Park Boards and the President of the Sanitary District shall be held to be ex-officio members of said Commission, whose membership on such commission will cease when they retire from the offices which they now hold, and in this recommendation I would respectfully ask the concurrence of your Honorable Body.

To secure stability in the chairmanship of the commission and keep it unaffected by the frequent changes among holders of public office, as well as to recognize tireless and patriotic devotion to the betterment of Chicago, I have named Mr. Charles H. Wacker to be chairman.

SECTION 1. For the purpose of this ordinance, the term "taximeter" whenever used herein shall be held to embrace and mean and is hereby defined to mean any instrument or device attached or to be attached to a public vehicle designed or intended to measure the distance travelled, to record the time said vehicle is in waiting and to record the fare or charge therefor; the term "taxicab", all public vehicles propeled by power other than muscular power to which is attached a taximeter.

Both of the foregoing tests may be made in the discretion of the said Inspector of Weights and Measures.

In order to determine whether such taximeter correctly registers "waiting time" it shall be the duty of said Inspector of Weights and Measures to test such taximeter by comparing the time recorded as shown by the fare computed on the dial thereof with the standard time.

It shall be the duty of any person, firm or corporation owning, controlling or operating a taxicab to deliver either the taxicab together with the taximeter, or the taximeter detached therefrom, to the Inspector of Weights and Measures, or any of his deputies, for the purpose of making the aforesaid test upon demand; Provided, however, such person, firm or corporation may if desired be present at the time such test is made.

SECTION 6. It shall be the duty of the Inspector of Weights and Measures to seal all taximeters found accurate and correct and to keep a record of the number of each taximeter and the date of the inspection thereof in the books of his office. The fee to be charged for the inspection of each taximeter is hereby fixed at the sum of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50); no charge shall be made for additional inspections unless the taximeter registers incorrectly or inaccurately, in which case an inspection fee of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) shall be charged.

SECTION 7. No person, firm or corporation owning, operating or controlling any taxicab shall let the same for hire or reward for a fee or charge to be fixed and determined by the hour or fraction thereof, but the fare demanded and received shall (excepting for waiting time as herein provided for) be computed by the distance travelled and shall not exceed the following rates:

For the first one-half mile or fraction thereof.....40c
For each one-fourth mile thereafter..10c
For each four minutes of waiting...10c

Waiting time shall include the time during which the taxicab is not in motion beginning with its arrival at the place to which it has been called, or the time consumed while standing at the direction of a passenger, but no charge shall be made for time lost for inefficiency of the taxicab or its operator or for time consumed by a premature arrival in response to a call.

SECTION 8. It shall be the duty of the operator or driver of every taxicab to announce to the person hiring the same at the termination of the service and before the position of the flag or flag post is changed, the charge therefor, as shown on the dial of said taximeter.

There shall be affixed on the inside of each taxicab in a conspicuous place and in such manner that the same may be easily and conveniently read by any person riding in such taxicab, a card upon which shall be printed in plain legible type the rates of fare provided for in this ordinance.

SECTION 11. Any owner, agent, employe, driver or operator operating or driving any taxicab upon the streets, alleys or public places of the city for hire or reward to which is attached a taximeter which registers improperly or inocrrectly, or who violates any of the provisions of this ordinance, or who neglects or refuses to comply with the same, shall be fined not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00) for each offense, and every such owner, agent, employe, driver or operator shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for every day such failure, neglect or refusal shall continue, and no person shall in any way or manner disturb, hinder or molest the Inspector of Weights and Measures or any of his deputies in the performance of their duties as hereby imposed upon them under a penalty of not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00).

CITY HALL AND PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

The Committee on City Hall and Public Buildings submitted the following report, which was, on motion of Ald. Taylor, ordered published and placed on file:

CHICAGO, November 1, 1909.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

Your Committee on City Hall and Public Buildings, beg leave to submit herewith a report on the progress of the work of construction of the new City Hall, and request that said report be published in the Council Proceedings:

GENERAL REPORT ON THE PROGRESS OF THE WORK, CHICAGO CITY HALL, TO OCTOBER 1ST, 1909.

Since your Committee's last report of May 24th, 1909, the building has been progressing rapidly.

The steel work on the main part of the building is set up to and including the roof and is riveted to the 10th floor complete and a part of the 11th floor and the roof is riveted. The two bays, one on Washington street at the south end and one on Randolph street at the north end are not erected as the wrecking of the County building at these corners interfered. There are two other bays directly west from the above named corners that are erected only to the eighth story. There are two stiff leg derricks now on the 8th floor at this point being used by the granite setters. As soon as the connections to the County building are made at the 1st story, these granite derricks will be raised to the roof and all intermediate steel filled in. There have been 127 shipments of steel, comprising 322 cars, from Ambridge, Pa., and 27 shipments by teams from the Lassig plant in Chicago. The material from the Lassig plant was 65 girders used in the vault story. The four heavy girders over the Council Chamber weighed two 35 tons, one 37½ tons and one 44 tons, respectively. The total weight of steel shipped to date from both plants is 21,634,616 pounds or 10,817.308 tons. There is a small quantity of steel for sub-basement yet to be shipped. The corner stone of the building was laid June 20th and one month from this date the first roof column was set in place.

The sub-basement and conveyor trench in same are excavated and all sub-basement walls are now in. All the struts and a part of the floor is now in sub-basement. The boiler pits are dug and walls concreted.

The granite work has been delayed on account of recutting of the County building stone, but will be set complete by January 15. The wrecking of the County building was necessarily slow, as the concrete and brick backing as well as portions of the steel framing had to be removed before the granite could be taken down. As fast as these portions of the work were finished, the granite was taken down stone by stone and removed to a storage yard, there to be recut, refaced and cleaned ready to be hauled back to take its new place in the City Hall. There have been three shifts of an average of 60 men working night and day on the wrecking of the County building. The wrecking of the granite work on the south or Washington street end of the County building was started about August 30th, and was finished September 23d. The north or Randolph street end was started August 21st and finished on September 30th.

The stock of granite to replace that removed from the County building and complete the connection with the City Hall is shipped complete including the columns and a very large portion is either on the site or at the railway yards on cars ready for delivery at the building.

The reports from the quarry show that the whole job is practically cut including several of the columns and caps complete. There have been 141 shipments of 2,989 pieces from the Hardwick quarry and 17 shipments of 259 pieces from the Bethel quarry. There have been 271 pieces recut from the County building stock, at the yard, and have been delivered and set at the job. There have been 23,393 cubic feet set in the building. The granite is set nearly to the heavy vault story portion at the southwest corner along La Salle and Washington streets. The balance of the building, with the exception of the two connecting links with the County building, is set up to and including the second story or Torus mould height. There are several piers well started above the Torus mould and some ready for the third story arches. The main entrances on La Salle street are set, complete.

The granite up to and including the vault story has been shipped and a large percentage of the material up to this portion is either set or on the ground ready to be placed on the walls. The column bases have been ordered shipped and the entire granite work will be rushed from now on to completion. There are 5 setters working, with about 30 derrick men helping them in handling the stone. The granite work is being anchored to the steel structure and then backed up with brickwork and concrete as fast as set.

The light court walls have been carried up to the vault story level, with their terra cotta sills, jambs, lintels, etc.

The ornamental terra cotta work is being fitted in around the granite window openings and across the third story spandrels.

The terra cotta work for the whole building is practically complete, ready for shipment as fast as needed at the building. There are 16 setters working on this portion of the work.

The fireproofing of the steel work, both concrete and hollow tile, is progressing. The floor arches are in up to and including the tenth floor and the concrete filling in the haunches of the arches is being placed as fast as centers are removed and holes keyed.

The columns are fireproofed up to the second floor and several on the third floor. The spandrel girders at the vault floor are being concreted as well as the heavy trusses on this floor.

There have been 232,600 square feet of 6-inch arch floors, 116,400 lineal feet of girder covering, 91,600 square feet of 15-inch arch floors and 17,100 square feet of 12-inch arch floors of hollow tile laid.

The ornamental metal work is well in advance of any following work. The two flights of main stairs have the ornamental cast iron stringers with the connecting rods and pipe supports installed, with the exception of the main stairs on the first floor, up to the eleventh floor complete and partly installed from the eleventh floor to the roof. The two flights of east and west corridor stairs are up to the tenth floor. Both of these stairways are ready for the marble or tutti colori treads and risers when this portion of the work may be installed.

The two flights of stairs in the east section of the building near the elevators are installed from basement to second floor, including rough strings, steel treads and risers ready for the marble work. These stairways go only to the second floor.

The elevator fronts have the iron sills and rough fronts framed and installed up to and including the eighth story.

The 18 heavy cast iron window frames for the first story street front are all set with the exception of five which cannot be installed until the granite connection is made to the County building.

The cast iron door frames to fire escape platform at the second story level and at stair platform between the second and third stories are set.

All the material for the rough part of the stair strings and supports are on the job ready for installation. All elevator rough frames and sills are on the job.

The ventilation ducts are being made at the building and are installed as fast as the progress of other portions will allow. The galvanized iron is delivered in sheets and is bent and shaped by special machinery to measurements taken from the various places where the ducts are to be installed, and is then soldered and riveted and reinforced by angles.

The work is painted inside and out before being placed in position. The main blast and vent ducts are installed up to the sixth floor and the horizontal branches, both vent and blast, to and from the various rooms and departments, are being placed on the second and third floors.

The steam heating system is following the steel work, the risers and returns are in place up to the tenth floor. The mains and returns are in place in the basement and the risers and returns from the upper stories are connected to same.

The overhead main on the ceiling of the tenth floor is being run in connection with the other work.

The plumbers have their risers up to the tenth and eleventh floors and downspouts and wastes to the same heights. The roughing in for general and private toilet rooms is in; the general toilets are roughed in to the eighth floor, inclusive, and private on second and third. Water supply is in up to the sixth floor. The three house tanks and ice water expansion tanks are on the roof. The sub-drainage is practically completed in sub-basement as well as the pits for ejectors, pumps, etc.

The main trenches for steam and plumbing pipes in the basement are being put in now.

Electric Work. The fire alarm conduits are in; there are 15 of these 2 inches in diameter. The main risers are up to the eighth and ninth floors in the wire shafts. The connections for brackets, ceiling lights, floor plugs, etc., have the conduit and boxes in on the second, third and partly on the fourth and fifth floors; have conduit runs in on the sixth and seventh floors. The power main conduit is being run in the basement now.

The metal lather has started his suspended ceilings and lathing on the second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth floors, and has a large quantity of material on the job to rush his work through.

The marble contractor has removed the marble from the arches for connecting the County building with the City Hall, and reports from the marble work show that the cutting and finishing of the marble work is in such shape as to allow starting the main east and west corridors as soon as the work in the City Hall will allow.

The difficulties encountered throughout in connection with the wrecking of the County building have been overcome in such a manner as to interfere as little as possible with the working forces employed by the county.

Dustproof partitions have been installed throughout wherever it was necessary and brick partitions for protection around all vault openings.

The carpenters have the rough brick door and borrowed light window frames set on the second floor and are well started on the third floor.

The tile partitions are started in the south half of the second floor and will follow up as fast as the door and window frames are set.

The wood window frames for the street fronts and courts are being delivered as fast as needed; they are delivered to the fourth floor, inclusive.

There has been an average of men working as follows:

	Men.
Steel men	105
Concrete	65
Masons	60
Granite	33
Steam	16
Plumbing	33
Electric	15
Carpenters	20
Laborers	70
Ventilation	22
Painters	2
Ornamental	8
Lathers	22
Terra cotta	16

This makes a total of about 472 men.

From reports received from the different mills, shops, etc., and the conditions seen on the building, the City Hall building is in good condition for a rapid completion and should be ready for occupancy on contract time.

Respectfully submitted,

Chairman.

ALSO,

The same committee submitted the following report, which was, on motion of Ald. Taylor, deferred and ordered published:

CHICAGO, November 1, 1909.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

Your Committee on City Hall and Public Buildings, having had under consideration public bids submitted to the Commissioner of Public Works for work in connection with the construction of the new City Hall, beg leave to report and recommend for passage the ordinance herewith submitted authorizing and directing the said Commissioner of Public Works to accept the bid of Sargent

& Co. for furnishing and delivering all the finishing hardware required in the new City Hall, and to execute the contract hereto attached:

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That the Commissioner of Public Works be and he is hereby authorized and directed to enter into a contract with Sargent & Co., a corporation organized under the laws of New York, for furnishing and delivering all the finishing hardware required in the new City Hall building on the west half of Block thirty-nine (39), in the Original Town of Chicago, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the form of agreement attached hereto, for a sum not to exceed thirty-one thousand one hundred and eighty dollars ($31,180.00); provided, said Sargent & Co. shall execute said contract and shall furnish a bond for the faithful performance of the same in the penal sum of thirty-one thousand one hundred and eighty dollars ($31,180.00), with sureties satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works and conditioned as required by law within such time as shall be fixed by said Commissioner of Public Works.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval.

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this.....day of ....., A. D. 1909, between Sargent & Co., a corporation organized under the laws of New York, party of the first part, and the City of Chicago, party of the second part, witnesseth:

1. That the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the payments to be to it made by the City of Chicago, as hereinafter set forth, hereby covenants and agrees to furnish and deliver all the finishing hardware required in the erection and completion of the City Hall building on the west half of Block 39 in the Original Town of Chicago, in conformity to and in accordance with the plans, drawings, specifications and addenda thereto prepared by Holabird & Roche, Architects, and identified by signatures of said party of the first part and said architects, copies of which are hereto attached and made parts hereof, the originals being on file in the office of the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago.

2. It is expressly understood and agreed that the said City Hall building is at the date hereof in process of construction, and that the first deliveries of hardware will be required about the first day of January, 1910. The party of the first part hereby agrees to furnish and deliver said hardware at the site of said building from time to time as the same may be ordered by the Architects so as not to delay the general or other contractors in or about said building, and to deliver all the hardware included herein complete by the first day of September, A. D. 1910, the time of commencement, rate of progress and time of completion of said deliveries being essential conditions of this contract.

3. It is hereby further agreed that the party of the second part shall furnish to the party of the first part one set of copies of all plans, drawings, specifications and addenda thereto signed by said Commissioner of Public Works and by said Architects. Should any dispute arise between the parties hereto respecting the true construction or interpretation to be given said plans, drawings, specifications or addenda, or the meaning thereof, the same shall be decided by the Architects with the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works and such decision shall be final. Said plans, drawings and specifications are intended to be co-operative so that any work shown by the plans or drawings and not mentioned in the specifications, or vice versa, is to be executed if mentioned in the specifications and shown by the plans or drawings with the true intent and meaning of said plans, drawings and specifications.

4. It is further agreed that the said party of the second part may, through its Commissioner of Public Works at any time during the performance of this contract, make any addition to or deduction or alteration, from said plans, drawings, specifications and addenda without invalidating any part of this agreement, but the fair value of the same shall be added to or deducted from the sums herein agreed to be paid by the said party of the second part, as the case may be; provided, that no work of any description shall be considered as extra work or a charge in excess of the amount herein agreed to be paid unless a proper estimate in writing of the same before its commencement shall have been submitted and signed by the said Architects, approved by the said Commissioner of Public Works and authorized by the City Council of the City of Chicago; and, provided, further, that should any dispute arise respecting the fair value of the work or material added or omitted by the party of the first part, the same shall be determined by the arbitration of three persons, one to be chosen by the party of the first part, one by the party of the second part, through its Commissioner of Public Works, and the two so chosen to select a third, and the decision by a majority of the three so chosen shall be binding upon the parties hereto, and the expense of said arbitration shall be borne equally between the parties hereto. Said party of the first part, however, expressly covenants and agrees that in no case shall any such dispute or arbitration interfere with the regular progress of its deliveries, but that it will prosecute the entire work, including that under dispute or arbitration, without interruption or delay in accordance with the terms of this contract and the specifications, pending the settlement of any such dispute by arbitration or otherwise.

5. In cases of additions to or alterations in the work made as above provided which will require additional time for completion of this contract, or in case the party of the first part shall be obstructed or delayed in the prosecution or completion of the work by any damage which may happen by fire, lightning, earthquake, cyclone or the abandonment of the work by its employees through no fault of said party of the first part, then the time herein fixed for the completion of the work may be extended for a period equivalent to the time lost by reason of any of the causes aforesaid; but no such extension shall be made unless a claim therefor is presented in writing to the Commissioner of Public Works within three days after the commencement of any such delay. The duration of such extension, if any, shall be such fair allowance as shall be determined and certified in writing by the Architects, and approved by the Commissioner of Public Works. And it is further expressly understood and agreed that if the time of performance of the contract herein be for any reason, either expressly or by implication, extended, such extensions shall not affect the validity of this contract nor the liabilities of the sureties upon the bond given for the faithful performance of the same.

6. It is further understood and agreed that said party of the first part shall not sublet any portion of said work except with the consent and approval in writing of the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects, and in no case shall such consent relieve the party of the first part from its obligations herein assumed, or change the terms of this agreement. Should said party of the first part desire to sublet any portion of the work, a request shall be made in writing (in triplicate copies), giving the name and address of the proposed sub-contractor and defining the portion of the work he desires to sublet, and this shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects for approval. If the proposed sub-contractor is satisfactory, one copy of the written request of said party of the first part shall be approved in writing by the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects, and returned to said party of the first part.

7. It is further understood and agreed that on or about the first and fifteenth days of each month and before the party of the second part or its agents or Architects shall pay or cause to be paid to the party of the first part or its order any money or other consideration due or to become due herein, said party of the first part shall furnish to the Commissioner of Public Works, if required by him, a written statement, verified by affidavit, giving the names and addresses of all persons, firms and corporations who have, up to the date thereof, furnished labor or material in or about the performance of this contract, and the amounts due or to become due to said parties.

8. It is further understood and agreed that whenever the Commissioner of Public Works shall notify the party of the first part by notice personally served or by leaving a copy thereof at the last known address of said party of the first part that no further estimates or vouchers will be issued or payments made on the contract until the sub-contractors, workmen or employees of said party of the first part have been paid, and said party of the first part shall neglect or refuse for the space of ten days after such notice shall have been served to pay such sub-contractors, workmen or employees, said party of the second part shall be authorized to apply any money due or that may become due under this contract to the payment of such sub-contractors, workmen or employees without other or further notice to said party of the first part, or, at its option may declare this entire agreement null and void and may take possession of said work and complete the same; and in such case said party of the first part hereby agrees to pay all loss or damage caused thereby. And it is expressly understood and agreed that the failure of the party of the second part to retain and apply any of such moneys or of the Commissioner of Public Works to order or direct that no vouchers or estimate shall issue or further payments be made, shall not, nor shall the paying over of any reserved percentage, without such sub-contractor, workman or employee being first paid, in any way affect the liability of the party of the first part or of its sureties to said party of the second part or to any such sub-contractor, workman or employee upon the bond given for the faithful performance of this contract.

9. Said party of the first part further covenants and agrees to furnish such materials, workmanship and labor of all kinds as shall be suitable and necessary for carrying out this contract. No improper materials shall be used, but all materials of every kind shall fully answer the specifications, or, if not particularly specified or indicated on the plans or drawings shall be suitable for the place where used. All hardware furnished shall be subject to the inspection and the approval or rejection of said Architects, and the said party of the second part hereby reserves to said Architects, with the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works, the right finally to decide all questions arising as to the proper performance of said work and as to whether the rate of progress thereon is such as to correspond with the conditions of this contract. Any imperfect workmanship or other faults which may appear within eighteen months after the completion of said work, and which in the judgment of the Architects, with the approval of said Commissioner of Public Works, arise out of improper materials or workmanship, shall, upon the direction of said Commissioner of Public Works, be made good, by and at the expense of said party of the first part, and in case of its failure so to do, the said City of Chicago may recover from said party of the first part the cost of making good the work.

10. It is further expressly understood and agreed that if the said party of the first part shall at any time refuse, neglect or be unable to follow the reasonable instructions of the Commissioner of Public Works and of said Architects in the completion of said work in any manner or fail to make deliveries at such a rate as shall, in the judgment of said architects and of the Commissioner of Public Works, insure completion of the contract in the time and manner herein stipulated, or delay said work or show gross carelessness or incompetency or fail to comply with said plans, drawings, specifications and addenda, or refuse or neglect to furnish sworn statements as herein agreed, said party of the second part, by giving three days' notice in writing signed by said Architects and approved by said Commissioner of Public Works to said party of the first part of its intention so to do, and the party of the first part being still in default as above at the end of said three days, may declare this contract forfeited, either as to a portion or the whole of said hardware and relet the same to other parties; and in such case of default, or in any case of default, may adjust the difference of damage or price (if any there be) which, according to the just and reasonable interpretation of this contract, the said contractor should, in the opinion of said Commissioner, pay to the said city for any failure to comply with the terms thereof; and it is hereby understood and agreed that for any amount of damage or price determined by said Commissioner to be paid to said city by said contractor for any such default, or for any money paid out by said city on account of said contractor in consequence of any default, there shall be applied in payment thereof a like amount of any money that may be due and owing to said party of the first part on account of the furnishing and delivery of hardware, so far as there may be any such money, and so far as the same shall be sufficient; and if there shall not be a sufficient amount retained from the said party of the first part, then, and in such case, the amount to be paid to said city in consequence of such default shall be a just claim against the contractor, to be recovered at law against it in the name of the city, in any court of competent jurisdiction.

11. The said City of Chicago hereby covenants and agrees, in consideration of the covenants and agreements in this contract specified to be kept and performed by the said party of the first part that if its City Council shall hereafter levy taxes and appropriate funds therefrom lawfully for this purpose, it will pay to said party of the first part for the full completion of the work included in this contract to the satisfaction and acceptance of the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects, the sum of thirty-one thousand, one hundred and eighty dollars ($31,180.00), as hereinafter set forth.

12. It is further agreed by said city that if its City Council shall levy taxes and appropriate funds as aforesaid and if the rate of progress upon said work shall be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works and to said Architects, semi-monthly certificates will be issued by the Architects for eighty-five (85) per cent. of the work done and materials properly set in place, in the judgment of the said architects. On or about the fifth and twentieth days of each month, upon the approval of the above certificates by the Commissioner of Public Works, estimates for the amount of the certificates will be issued by said Commissioner of Public Works subject to additions or deductions as herein provided for, which shall entitle the holder to receive the amount that may be due thereon when the money applicable to the payment of such work shall be available and the conditions annexed to such estimates, if any, shall have been satisfied. It is expressly understood and agreed, however, that the amounts to be paid from time to time shall in no case exceed eighty-five per cent. of the value of the work done and the material set in place; the remaining fifteen per cent. of said value is to be retained by said party of the second part as part security for the faithful performance of this contract, and shall not be paid until the expiration of thirty days after the completion of said work, acceptance of the same by the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects, payment of all claims for labor and materials and the return of all plans, specifications and drawings to the Architects. The giving of the aforesaid certificates and estimates, however, shall in no way lessen the total and final responsibility of the party of the first part.

13. It is further expressly understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the hardware herein provided for shall be fully completed and delivered within the time fixed herein. Inasmuch as the failure to have said hardware fully completed and delivered within the time fixed therefor will work an injury to the city, and as the damages arising from delay in the completion of the work cannot be calculated with any degree of certainty, it is hereby agreed that if said hardware is not completed and delivered within the time specified, then there shall be deducted from the contract price and retained by the city as its ascertained and liquidated damages the sum of four hundred dollars ($400.00) for each and every day passing after the date so fixed for the completion of said work until said hardware is fully completed and delivered.

14. This agreement shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of the respective parties hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Said party of the first part has caused this agreement to be signed by its President, and its corporate seal to be affixed hereto and attested by its Secretary, and the City of Chicago has caused this agreement to be signed by its Commissioner of Public Works, countersigned by its Comptroller and approved by its Mayor, the day and year first above written.

first part, and in case of its failure so to do, the said City of Chicago may recover from said party of the first part the cost of making good the work.

10. It is further expressly understood and agreed that if the said party of the first part shall at any time refuse, neglect or be unable to follow the reasonable instructions of the Commissioner of Public Works and of said Architects in the completion of said work in any manner or fail to make deliveries at such a rate as shall, in the judgment of said architects and of the Commissioner of Public Works, insure completion of the contract in the time and manner herein stipulated, or delay said work or show gross carelessness or incompetency or fail to comply with said plans, drawings, specifications and addenda, or refuse or neglect to furnish sworn statements as herein agreed, said party of the second part, by giving three days' notice in writing signed by said Architects and approved by said Commissioner of Public Works to said party of the first part of its intention so to do, and the party of the first part being still in default as above at the end of said three days, may declare this contract forfeited, either as to a portion or the whole of said hardware and relet the same to other parties; and in such case of default, or in any case of default, may adjust the difference of damage or price (if any there be) which, according to the just and reasonable interpretation of this contract, the said contractor should, in the opinion of said Commissioner, pay to the said city for any failure to comply with the terms thereof; and it is hereby understood and agreed that for any amount of damage or price determined by said Commissioner to be paid to said city by said contractor for any such default, or for any money paid out by said city on account of said contractor in consequence of any default, there shall be applied in payment thereof a like amount of any money that may be due and owing to said party of the first part on account of the furnishing and delivery of hardware, so far as there may be any such money, and so far as the same shall be sufficient; and if there shall not be a sufficient amount retained from the said party of the first part, then, and in such case, the amount to be paid to said city in consequence of such default shall be a just claim against the contractor, to be recovered at law against it in the name of the city, in any court of competent jurisdiction.

11. The said City of Chicago hereby covenants and agrees, in consideration of the covenants and agreements in this contract specified to be kept and performed by the said party of the first part that if its City Council shall hereafter levy taxes and appropriate funds therefrom lawfully for this purpose, it will pay to said party of the first part for the full completion of the work included in this contract to the satisfaction and acceptance of the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects, the sum of thirty-one thousand, one hundred and eighty dollars ($31,180.00), as hereinafter set forth.

12. It is further agreed by said city that if its City Council shall levy taxes and appropriate funds as aforesaid and if the rate of progress upon said work shall be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works and to said Architects, semi-monthly certificates will be issued by the Architects for eighty-five (85) per cent. of the work done and materials properly set in place, in the judgment of the said architects. On or about the fifth and twentieth days of each month, upon the approval of the above certificates by the Commissioner of Public Works, estimates for the amount of the certificates will be issued by said Commissioner of Public Works subject to additions or deductions as herein provided for, which shall entitle the holder to receive the amount that may be due thereon when the money applicable to the payment of such work shall be available and the conditions annexed to such estimates, if any, shall have been satisfied. It is expressly understood and agreed, however, that the amounts to be paid from time to time shall in no case exceed eighty-five per cent. of the value of the work done and the material set in place; the remaining fifteen per cent. of said value is to be retained by said party of the second part as part security for the faithful performance of this contract, and shall not be paid until the expiration of thirty days after the completion of said work, acceptance of the same by the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects, payment of all claims for labor and materials and the return of all plans, specifications and drawings to the Architects. The giving of the aforesaid certificates and estimates, however, shall in no way lessen the total and final responsibility of the party of the first part.

13. It is further expressly understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the hardware herein provided for shall be fully completed and delivered within the time fixed herein. Inasmuch as the failure to have said hardware fully completed and delivered within the time fixed therefor will work an injury to the city, and as the damages arising from delay in the completion of the work cannot be calculated with any degree of certainty, it is hereby agreed that if said hardware is not completed and delivered within the time specified, then there shall be deducted from the contract price and retained by the city as its ascertained and liquidated damages the sum of four hundred dollars ($400.00) for each and every day passing after the date so fixed for the completion of said work until said hardware is fully completed and delivered.

14. This agreement shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of the respective parties hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Said party of the first part has caused this agreement to be signed by its President, and its corporate seal to be affixed hereto and attested by its Secretary, and the City of Chicago has caused this agreement to be signed by its Commissioner of Public Works, countersigned by its Comptroller and approved by its Mayor, the day and year first above written.

AN ORDINANCE

Amending Section 35 and Section 42 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That Section 35 and Section 42 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and they are hereby amended so as to read, respectively, as follows:

35. Mayor and Comptroller to Sign Warrants.) The Mayor shall sign all warrants drawn upon the Treasurer; and the same shall be countersigned by the Comptroller or Deputy Comptroller. Each warrant shall state the particular fund or appropriation to which the same is chargeable and the person to whom payable; and no money shall be otherwise paid than upon warrants so drawn.

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
November 1, 1909.

Hon. William E. Dever, Chairman, Judiciary Committee:

DEAR SIR—Replying to your verbal inquiry as to what effect the passage of an ordinance amending Sections 35 and 42 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 giving to the Deputy City Comptroller power to countersign warrants would have upon the bond of the said Deputy Comptroller, I desire to say:

In order that no question may ever be raised as to what effect the enlargement of the Deputy Comptroller's power would have upon the enforcibility of the bond, that the following procedure should be adopted:

At the first regular meeting held after the passage of the proposed ordinance amending the aforesaid sections, the bond company should be requested, without any additional charge, to write a new bond. This bond should be in the sum of $50,000 and should run in favor of the city. It should be approved by the Council at the first regular meeting held after the passage of the aforesaid amendatory ordinance, and should bear thereon a certificate of the Comptroller that the sureties are of sufficient financial responsibility for the amount of the penalty of such bond, and should be approved by the Corporation Counsel.

The amount of the bond required by Section 41, namely, $50,000 is perhaps for all intents and purposes sufficient, inasmuch as it has not been the policy of the city to require from any public official having the custody of public funds, a bond in an amount equal to the amount of money handled by such official.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) HOWARD W. HAYES,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Force, trustee, of Block forty-five (45) aforementioned, said part of said street being further described as the southeasterly four hundred forty (440) feet of that part of Cary avenue lying between the east line of Greenwood avenue and the north line of 76th street; and said alleys being further described as all of the public alleys in the block bounded on the north, northeast and east by Cary avenue, on the south by 76th street on the west by Greenwood avenue, as colored in red and indicated by the words "To be vacated" upon the plat hereto attached, which plat for greater

In Re Vacation of Part of Cary Avenue and Alley in Block 45, Cornell.

October 20, 1909.

Hon. Nicholas R. Finn, Chairman, Committee on Compensation:

DEAR SIR—Your favor of October 6th, 1909, enclosing ordinance and plat of vacation was received.

Both the street and alley in this block were laid out and dedicated by a resubdivision and no part thereof has ever been accepted by the City or has been used by the public. The ground is low and until recent years has been under water part of the year. No trace of any street or alley can be seen within the block. The block is covered with large advertising signs and is surrounded on two sides by railroad tracks considerably above the ground level, and on the remaining sides by a ditch. There is an 8-foot plank crossing over this ditch from Greenwood avenue into what would be Cary avenue. The owners of the block informed me, and their statement is confirmed by Mr. Howard Smith, the Superintendent of the Thirty-third Ward, that this crossing was not built by the City but was built by the owners of Block 45 in order to facilitate the transportation of lumber for the erection of the advertising signs in the block.

I am therefore of opinion that the City has no rights either in the street or the alley in question.

Your truly,

(Signed) ADOLPH TRAUB,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Approved:

(Signed) EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE,
Corporation Counsel.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

By unanimous consent, Ald. Brennan presented resolutions as follows:

WHEREAS, For forty-five years—nearly half a century—the name of John M. Smyth has stood for all that was public-spirited and honorable among his business associates. His simple and democratic mode of life and undemonstrative, though wonderfully forceful, character, and his absolute honesty, equity, charity and integrity in the conduct of his business, have been known and appreciated by the people of this great city.

A leader among leaders, a wise lawmaker, a loving husband and father, a patriotic citizen, his death marks the passing away of an able and upright man; therefore, be it

Resolved by the City Council of Chicago, That his death is deplored by this body as one of its honored ex-members, serving the city as he did with fidelity and devotion from 1878 to 1882 as representative of the old Ninth Ward; and in common with his relatives and friends we mourn his loss and express a heartfelt sympathy with his family in its bereavement; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to his family by the City Clerk.

Which were, on motion of Ald. Brennan, unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

The Clerk presented a report submitted by His Honor, the Mayor, containing a list of the names of persons released from the House of Correction during the week ending November 6, 1909, together with the cause of each release; which was ordered Placed on file.

ALSO,

A communication as follows:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHICAGO, November 8, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I have received the following communication from the Secretary of the Lumbermen's Association of Chicago:

CHICAGO, November 4, 1909.

"Hon. Fred. A. Busse, Mayor of City of Chicago, City Hall, Chicago:

DEAR SIR—We understand that the City Engineer's Department has stopped the work of the Pennsylvania Company on the Stewart avenue bridge over the Chicago River.

This association indorses the protest of the Sanitary Board and urges that the City of Chicago do not permit the Pennsylvania Company or any other corporation to place over the Chicago River any bridges that do not give a full 200-foot unobstructed span.

We would like to ask if the city will designate a representative to go to Washington with representatives of this and other organizations for the purpose of protesting to the War Department and urging the revocation of the permit issued by that department for the construction of this bridge, and also urging that the War Department issue no further permits for bridges over the Chicago River that do not give a full 200-foot unobstructed span.

We trust that the city authorities will stand pat on this proposition and stop this work until the railroad company agrees to construct this bridge the full width of the river.

The curve at this point of the river is very dangerous and a menace to navigation, owing to the current that there is in the river, and with the abutment of the bridge as proposed, sticking out, serious accidents will occur.

We, therefore, urge you to do everything in your power to stop the construction of this bridge in its present form.

Trusting that you will give this your prompt and immediate attention, we are,

Yours truly,

(Signed) E. E. HOOPER,
Secretary.

Pursuant to this request I would respectfully recommend that the Mayor be authorized to send one or if necessary two representatives of the City of Chicago to Washington at such time as may be agreed upon for the purpose of conferring with the War Department on the subject as outlined in the above communication.

Respectfully,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

Ald. Snow moved to grant the request of the Mayor for authority to send a representative to confer with the War Department at Washington, in accordance with the suggestions outlined in the foregoing communication.

The motion prevailed, Ald. Brennan desiring to be recorded as voting "no."

His Honor, the Mayor, thereupon announced the appointment of John J. Hanberg, Commissioner of Public Works, as the said representative of the city.

CITY CLERK.

The City Clerk submitted a report of acceptances and bonds under ordinances, filed in his office since the last preceding regular meeting of the Council, which was ordered printed in the Journal and

From the plans submitted by said firm said trestle is to have a minimum clearance above the street of fourteen feet and the uprights sustaining the same in Market street are to be no nearer than nineteen feet apart.

After investigation of the matter in connection with the Street Engineer, I am of the opinion that a temporary permit should issue upon the filing of a proper bond to protect the City of Chicago in case of accident, and have therefore had the enclosed order drafted by the Law Department, and respectfully ask its passage.

Very truly yours,

A report as follows:

CHICAGO, November 8, 1909.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

Your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred (April 12, 1909, page 78) a resolution directing the Corporation Counsel to proceed, at once, to use the necessary means to collect any and all back taxes which might be due the city from the estate of N. K. Fairbank, deceased, and from all other persons, corporations and estates that have avoided the just payment of taxes, beg leave to submit herewith the report of the Corporation Counsel, and recommend that it be printed in the Journal and placed on file.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) WILLIAM E. DEVER,
Chairman.

Ald. Dever moved to concur in the said report.

The motion prevailed.

The said report of the Corporation Counsel reads as follows:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
CHICAGO, November 8, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Judiciary Committee of the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—On April 12th last, a resolution was referred to your committee directing the Corporation Counsel to proceed at once to use the necessary means to collect any and all back taxes which might be due the city from the estate of N. K. Fairbank, deceased, and from all other persons, corporations and estates that have avoided the just payment of taxes, which resolution was, in due course of time, presented to me for consideration.

In order to carry out the wishes of your committee, I detailed Kimball E. Valentine to make a complete investigation of the Fairbank estate and I directed that such proceedings should be taken towards the collection of back taxes as might be warranted from the investigation. The following is a copy of a portion of the report submitted by Mr. Valentine, which is explanatory of the results accomplished to date.

"Acting upon your request I made a thorough investigation of all records in the Probate and County Court, and found sufficient evidence against the estate to warrant the filing of a claim before the Board of Review, which was done on July 1st, last. In the claim filed I objected to the assessments of previous years and asked that the Board assess such back taxes against the estate as might, after a full, fair hearing, be found equitable and just.

"The case was called for hearing in regular order. Mr. Benjamin Carpenter, trustee of the estate, appearing in its behalf, several hearings were had and the evidence of both sides presented, upon which evidence the Board assessed back taxes against said estate on an aggregate valuation of six hundred and twenty-two thousand dollars ($622,000).

"Referring to that portion of the resolution relating to the question of back taxes against Kellogg Fairbank, will say that the will of N. K. Fairbank directs that the estate be divided into seven equal parts which are to be held in trust, the annual income therefrom to be paid to the interested parties for life. Further investigation proved that this condition of the will was being enforced and that said Kellogg Fairbank had not profited from any division of the estate, except as to his share of the net income therefrom. Under these circumstances, and having practically no knowledge as to the taxable value of his personal holdings, and appreciating the fact that it is almost impossible to establish the taxable value of the personal property holdings of individuals without absolute documentary evidence, which I did not possess, and which I was unable to procure, I made no claim for back taxes against said Kellogg Fairbank."

Very truly yours,

(Signed) EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE,
Corporation Counsel.

ALSO,

The same committee, to whom had been referred (February 8, 1909, page 2737) an order directing the Committee on Compensation to investigate whether any acts of municipal control have been exercised by the city over any and all streets or alleys proposed to be vacated by ordinances referred to the said committee, and, if not, then to defer action on such ordinances providing for such vacation, submitted a report recommending that the said order be placed on file.

Ald. Dever moved to concur in the said report.

The motion prevailed.

Said inspection upon the request of a consumer shall be made substantially in accordance with the following requirements: Whenever any consumer of gas furnished by a gas company furnishing gas in the city shall make a request for such inspector to have any meter or meters so furnished and installed by such gas company on the premises of such consumer inspected for the purpose of ascertaining whether such meter registers accurately and correctly and pays the fee as hereinafter fixed, said inspector shall proceed to make a test of such gas meter. Before making any such test the inspector shall give notice to the person making application for such test, and also to the gas company whose meter is about to be tested, of the time and place where he intends to test such meter. Notice to the company shall be given in writing sent by mail to such gas company at its principal office in the city and notice shall be sent to such applicant in writing by mail addressed to the

All meters shall be tested at a pressure which will balance a column of water one and five-tenths of an inch in height, and the accuracy of such meter shall be determined by the use of standard meter provers designed and constructed for the purpose.

There shall be maintained in the office of the Inspector of Gas Meters and Gas at least three standard gas meters which have been tested, sealed and certified by the United States Bureau of Standards. The meters so maintained shall be used as standards for the purpose of checking the working provers which are used by said Inspector in checking and testing meters used by consumers of gas. Any consumer's meter tested by said Inspector shall be deemed to be correct if it registers not to exceed two per cent. above or two per cent. below accuracy. Any meter found to be either fast or slow as herein defined shall be adjusted by the gas company owning same so as to bring it as close as practical to accuracy within the limits herein specified before again being placed in service."

SECTION 3. That Section 937 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905, as amended January 21, 1907, be and the same is hereby amended by inserting after the word "issuing" appearing in the 6th line of said section as the same is published on page 2768 of the Council Proceedings of the aforesaid date the words "at a rate not less than five cubic feet per hour," and by striking out the word "thirty" appearing in the 6th line of said section as published on the page aforesaid and substituting in lieu thereof the word "sixty," and by inserting between the word "of" and the word "five-tenths" appearing in the 7th line of said section as published on the aforesaid page the words "one and," and by striking out the word "sulphur" appearing in the 11th line of said section as published on the aforesaid page and inserting in lieu thereof the words "sulphuretted hydrogen," so that said section when so amended will read as follows:

that one hundred cubic feet of such gas shall not contain more than twenty grains of sulphur, and so that one hundred cubic feet of such gas shall not contain more than five grains of ammonia.

All tests to be made for the purpose of establishing the percentage of sulphuretted hydrogen in illuminating gas furnished by any person or corporation furnishing gas in the city shall be made, or conducted with the Tutweiller Sulphuretted Hydrogen apparatus, and the sulphur in other forms shall be determined by means of the Gas Referees Sulphur-Determining Apparatus, and methods ordinarily employed in the use of the same."

SECTION 4. That Section 938 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905, as amended January 21, 1907, and February 15, 1909, and as published on page 2825 of the Council Proceedings of the last mentioned date, be and the same is hereby amended by striking out the word "recognized" appearing in the 13th line of said section and inserting after the word "standard" appearing in the aforesaid line the words "one hundred inch," and by adding to said section the following language: "or directly with the aforesaid candle." so that said section when so amended will read as follows:

The gas while being tested shall be burned by means of a No. 7 Bray Slit-Union low pressure burner when used in connection with a standard one hundred inch bar photometer and the requisite accessories. The room in which the photometric tests are made shall be so ventilated that the carbon dioxide present in the air shall not exceed twelve one-hundredths of one per cent.

"The unit of standard of light shall be that intensity of light emitted in a horizontal direction by one standard English sperm candle, when burning at the rate of 120 grains of sperm an hour.

"In order to facilitate the daily tests of candle power the standard Vernon-Harcourt Pentane Lamp of ten candle power may be used. This standard, however, shall be standardized monthly with a standard Vernon-Harcourt Pentane lamp, which has been verified within one month by comparison with the aforesaid standard English sperm candle, or directly with the aforesaid candle.

SECTION 5. That Section 3 of an ordinance relating to the price of gas, passed by the City Council on February 14, 1906, be and the same is hereby amended by striking out the words "or who shall, during said period, furnish to the said City of Chicago, or any citizen thereof, or any consumer of gas therein, manufactured gas of less than twenty-two candle power," appearing in the 10th to 15th lines, inclusive, of said section as published on pages 2639 and 2640, so that said section when so amended shall read as follows:

The said report of the Corporation Counsel submitted with the foregoing report, reads as follows:

March 24, 1909.

In re alley between Lowe avenue, Wallace street, 58th and 59th streets.

Hon. B. W. Snow, Chairman, Committee on Compensation:

DEAR SIR—We return herewith an ordinance providing for the vacation of this alley, together with a plat annexed thereto and the letter addressed to you by the Chief Clerk of the Bureau of Compensation.

After a careful investigation of the matter, we conclude that there is not sufficient evidence of an acceptance of this alley by the City. When the plat, dedicating the alley, was approved by the Board of Trustees of the Town of Lake, there was, at that time, no statute imposing penalties upon the Recorder of Deeds for recording plats of subdivisions without the approval of the municipal authorities. For this reason we regard this act of approval as one having very little weight.

The various departments to which we applied for information, have reported that the City has made no improvements in the alley, has not cleaned or repaired it, and that it has been closed for ten or twelve years. The parties owning the abutting lots filed an instrument in June 1903, vacating the alley.

The only evidence of the existence of an alley consists of the plat dedicated, but, as already said, that has been vacated, and the further fact that the abutting owners now seek to have the Council vacate the alley, but, in our judgment, this evidence is not strong enough to sustain our claim to the alley.

Yours truly,

(Signed) WM. D. BARGE,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Approved:

(Signed) EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE,
Corporation Counsel.

ALSO,

The same committee, to whom had been referred (October 18, 1909, page 1332) an ordinance authorizing owners of property abutting upon La Salle street, from Randolph street to Monroe street, on Clark street, from Randolph street to Washington street, on Randolph street, from Clark street to La Salle street, and on Washington street, from Clark street to La Salle street, to enter into private contracts for the paving of said portions of said streets, submitted a report recommending that the said ordinance be placed on file, for the reason that an ordinance granting the said authority had been passed on October 26, 1909.

Ald. Harding moved to concur in the said report.

The motion prevailed.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I would respectfully call to your attention a suggestion in relation to the various boards for the examination and licensing of persons in various occupations in the City of Chicago. Among the occupations the followers of which are now required to be examined and licensed, are master plumbers, journeyman plumbers, stationary engineers, moving picture operators, drivers of public vehicles, operators of motor cars, etc.

No doubt demand will arise from time to time in the future for the examination and licensing of the followers of other occupations. It has been suggested that it might be an improvement over existing conditions to have the work of holding examinations and issuing licenses to followers of these various occupations under the direction of one Board of Examiners, which would centralize all responsibility instead of having this work distributed among various boards and other officials as now. Objection, of course, might be raised that a board competent to examine plumbers would not be competent to examine engineers and so on. This objection might be met with a provision for permitting a general examining board to secure such assistance from outside as might be necessary to cover the technical features of these examinations just as the civil service commission now obtains assistance from outside, whether carrying on a technical examination of civil engineers, mechanical engineers, electricians, medical inspectors, etc. One obstruction to any effort to centralize this work of examination might be encountered in provisions of the state law providing for Boards of Examiners of Engineers and Examiners of Plumbers. But possibly a way around these provisions may be found. However, this is only a suggestion and I would respectfully recommend that the subject matter be referred to the Committee on Judiciary of your Honorable Body with a view to determining whether an ordinance may be worked out along the lines of this suggestion.

Respectfully,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

Ald. Dever moved to refer the foregoing communication to the Committee on Judiciary.

REPORTS OF VARIOUS COMMITTEES TO THE COUNCIL.

FINANCE.

The Committee on Finance, who had had under consideration an opinion from the Corporation Counsel concerning an increase in salary to the Engineer of the Department of Track Elevation, submitted a report recommending the passage of an order submitted therewith, rescinding a certain order passed by the City Council on October 4, 1909.

Unanimous consent was given for the immediate consideration of the said report.

Ald. Snow presented the said opinion of the Corporation Counsel and moved that it be read by the Clerk and printed in the Journal of the Proceedings of the Council.

The motion prevailed.

The said opinion reads as follows:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
CHICAGO, November 10, 1909.

In re salary M. K. Trumbull, Engineer, Track Elevation Department.

Hon. B. W. Snow, Chairman, Committee on Finance:

DEAR SIR—We have your letter referring to an order, Council Proceedings page 1323, October 4, 1909, authorizing the Commissioner of Track Elevation to allow six hundred dollars ($600.00) additional salary to M. K. Trumbull, engineer of that department, to be applied on the last six months of this year. You ask whether or not the council has the power to increase Mr. Trumbull's compensation in this manner.

The appropriation ordinance (March 8, 1909, Council Proceedings page 3109) contains an item of three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) for engineer, Track Elevation, in the Department of Track Elevation. We believe this would be held by the courts to be an appropriation of the salary for this engineer for the year 1909. The "Act to enable the corporate authorities of cities to establish and fix the salaries of city officers" approved and in force April 23, 1873, makes it lawful for the council to establish and fix the amount of salary in the annual appropriation ordinance and provides that the salary or compensation thus fixed shall neither be increased nor diminished by the council after the passage of the annual appropriation ordinance during the year for which such appropriation is made, "and no extra compensation shall ever be allowed to any such officer or employee over and above that provided in manner aforesaid."

We therefore advise you that the order in question is utterly void and that the salary in question cannot be raised during this year.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) WM. D. BARGE,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

ROBERT N. HOLT,
Acting Corporation Counsel.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be and he is hereby authorized to allow to said George W. Jackson, incorporated, for payment for one extra tug, recommended by the Dynamite Commission, for such time as such extra tug may be deemed necessary between November 1st, 1909, and April 1st, 1910, at the rate of sixty ($60.00) dollars per day, said amount to be paid from appropriations for the above work.

The following opinion of the Corporation Counsel was submitted with the foregoing report:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
CHICAGO, November 10, 1909.

In re claim of George W. Jackson, Inc., for additional work on intermediate crib.

Hon. B. W. Snow, Chairman, Committee on Finance:

DEAR SIR—We have your letter regarding claim of Geo. W. Jackson, Inc., for compensation for work done in the rebuilding of the intermediate crib at Seventy-first street, and in which you ask for an opinion upon the following questions:

1. Is the City of Chicago legally liable for the Jackson Company's claim for crib reconstruction in the absence of council action confirming the same?

2. Can the City of Chicago by general ordinance compel contractor engaged in work similar to that now carried on by the Jackson Company at the intermediate crib to provide more tug service for the protection of life and safety of employes at such crib than is required by the contract under which the work is being done, the additional service to be paid for by the contractor?

The contract provides that "should the Commissioner of Public Works deem it proper or necessary, in the execution of the work, to make any alterations which shall increase or diminish the expense, such alterations shall not vitiate or annul the contract or agreement hereby entered into, but the said Commissioner shall determine the value of the work so added or omitted, such value to be added to or to be deducted from the contract price, as the case may be."

Clause 46 in the specifications provides that "the crib shall be built substantially as shown on plans and sections for this work, sheets 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10."

In speaking of the intermediate crib, clause 115 of the specifications says "this part of the work consists in constructing a hexagonal timber and stone filled protection crib at the location hereinbefore specified and in sinking in the center of same a temporary working shaft in accordance with accompanying plans and the following specifications", etc.

In the case of Roemheld v. Chicago 231 Ill. 467, which was a suit to recover for additional material furnished for certain bridges, the contract provided that no claim for extras would be allowed unless the extras were first ordered in writing by the Commissioner of Public Works, and there was no such order in existence. Moreover, the ordinance in force then and now, provides that no claim for extras shall be allowed unless the extras are ordered by the City Council and the price fixed by the Council. There was in that case no council order for the additional material and no order by the Commissioner of Public Works directing that the additional material be supplied, but after the contract was made the plans were changed so that in order to construct the bridge according to the amended plans, it was necessary to furnish this additional material and the Supreme Court held that the city was liable for it, even though there was no order or ordinance authorizing it.

The same doctrine is laid down in the cases of Messenger v. Buffalo, 21 N. Y. 196; Kingsley v. Brooklyn, 78 N. Y. 200 and Wood v. Ft. Wayne, 119 U. S. 312.

We find that on May 11, 1909, the Commissioner of Public Works addressed a letter to the contractor enclosing plans and specifications for the reconstructing of intermediate crib in accordance with the recommendations of the Dynamite Commision and asked the contractor what, if any part of the increased cost should be borne by the city. To this letter the contractor replied under date of May 15, 1909, stating that a summary of the materials required over and above that called for by the contract and original specifications, showed the total cost to be $18,389.30 and stating, that while it was not their desire to have it understood that they are receiving extra payment over the contract price, it was their opinion that they should be compensated for this extra material, and further that they should also be compensated for the extra tug at the rate of $60.00 per day.

We understand from the letter addressed to your committee September 24, 1909, by the Commissioner of Public Works, that the Commissioner ordered the contractor to proceed with the work and that this work does not include any part of the reconstruction as shown on the contract drawings but covers only work and material required by the recommendations of the Dynamite Commission. The Commissioner further states that the coroner's jury recommended that boats be kept at the crib ready for service and he was of the opinion that the city should allow for one extra tug for such time as it would be deemed necessary between November 1, 1909, and April 1, 1910, at the rate of $60.00 per day.

We are of the opinion that the facts recited bring this claim within the rule laid down in the Roemheld case and the city is liable for the extra material it required the contractor to furnish, even though the City Council has not acted upon the matter.

To your second question we answer, that while it is true as a general proposition that the city may by ordinance passed under its police power, compel contractors to go to expense in order to make their work safe, no such ordinance is valid unless the court can see that it is a reasonable requirement. What is a reasonable requirement is a matter to be determined by the court. We would direct your attention to the fact that although other cribs have been built by the city, no fire or explosion occurred at any of them, and we are doubtful of the validity of an ordinance, requiring this contractor to go to the expense of maintaining an additional tug, for the reasonableness of the requirement does not appear to be clear.

We return herewith all papers submitted by you.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) WM. D. BARGE,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Acting Corporation Counsel.

Your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred (Oct. 18, 1909, page 1396) an order to revise Chapter 18 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905, concerning dogs, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report and recommend the passage of the accompanying ordinance:

AN ORDINANCE

Amending Sections 765 and 766 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That Sections 765 and 766 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same are hereby amended so as to read, respectively, as follows:

765. (Fierce Dogs—Impounding and Disposition Thereof.) Any dangerous, fierce or vicious dog running at large in the streets or public places of the city or upon private premises of any other person than the owner or keeper, and any dog which may in any manner disturb the quiet of any person or neighborhood or which shall bite a person or so injure a person as to cause an abrasion of the skin, is hereby declared to be a nuisance and such dog shall be taken up and impounded in the manner provided by the ordinances of the city.

It shall be unlawful for the owner or keeper of any dog, when notified that such dog has bitten any person or has so injured any person as to cause an abrasion of the skin, to sell or give away such dog or to permit or allow such dog to be taken beyond the limits of the city, but it shall be the duty of such owner or keeper upon receiving notice of the character aforesaid, to deliver such dog to any policeman; whereupon such policeman shall forthwith convey such dog to the place set aside by the General Superintendent of Police as a dog pound where such dog shall be securely chained or confined for a period of at least thirty (30) days.

But if any dangerous, fierce or vicious dog cannot safely be taken up and impounded, such dog may be slain by any policeman; provided, however, that in all cases where any dog which has bitten a person or caused an abrasion of the skin is slain by any policeman, whether by order of court or otherwise, and a period of less than fifteen (15) days has elapsed since the day upon which such dog bit any person or caused an abrasion of the skin of any person, then and in such event it shall be the duty of the policeman slaying such dog to forthwith deliver the carcass and the brain of such dog to the Department of Health.

It is hereby made the duty of any person receiving a dog from the place where it has been impounded by the Department of Police, to securely muzzle and chain such dog for a period of at least fifteen (15) days from the date of receiving the dog from such place.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this Section or neglecting or refusing to comply with any of the provisions hereof shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

766. If said cause is tried before a jury and the jury assesses the damages of the City of Chicago, the court may stay execution or issuance of a mittimus upon motion of the City Prosecutor, and continue the cause for a further day and order the defendant to have the dog shot by a police officer of the City of Chicago, within the time for which the case is continued.

If said cause is tried by the Court, defendant waiving a jury trial, the same course will prevail as though tried before a jury.

Upon a satisfactory showing to the court that said dog has been shot, the court may in its discretion cause a non-suit to be entered in said cause.

If the defendant shall refuse to deliver the dog to a police officer for the purpose of having the dog slain the City shall proceed to take out a mittimus against the body of the defendant or an execution against the goods and chattels of the said defendant as the case may be.

The following communication from the Corporation Counsel accompanied the foregoing ordinance:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
CHICAGO, November 5, 1909.

In re code revision—Section 906.

Hon. William E. Dever, Alderman, Seventeenth Ward:

DEAR SIR—Under the present ordinances the Municipal Court Judges fine the keeper of a gambling house a sum not less than twenty-five dollars. The inmates, however, since under the Code the court cannot fine less than ten dollars, are in most cases discharged as they are generally the poorest kind of clerks, barbers, waiters or cheap negroes who are found indulging in a five or ten-cent game and who have not much, if any, money with which to pay a fine. I am creditably informed that as a result of this condition the city is losing a revenue of at least one hundred dollars a day and that the inmates are suffering no punishment at all for their sins.

One of the Judges of the Municipal Court suggests that the minimum fine for frequenting a gambling house should be fixed at one dollar, and in accordance with this recommendation, in which I concur, I respectfully submit an amendment to accomplish the object suggested.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) HOWARD W. HAYES,

AN ORDINANCE

Amending Section 2240 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905, as amended, relating to the purchase of supplies, etc.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That Section 2240 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905, as amended, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

2240. Purchase of Supplies.) He shall make all purchases of supplies and materials for the use of the city, and shall let all contracts for labor to be performed for the city in cases wherein the cost of such supplies, materials or labor shall be less than the sum of five hundred dollars. The following communication from the Corporation Counsel accompanied the foregoing ordinance:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
CHICAGO, November 3, 1909.

In re Code Revision—Section 2240.

Hon. William E. Dever, Alderman, Seventeenth Ward:

DEAR SIR—The aforementioned section as it appears in the Code authorizes and empowers the Business Agent to sell scrap iron and such other materials belonging to the city as are not available for use; provided, however, that if the value of such materials be less than five hundred dollars the Business Agent shall make such sales upon terms most advantageous to the city, and shall procure competitive offers from at least three persons or corporations, and shall accept, in every case, the highest cash offer.

This provision is in direct conflict with Sections 378 to 380 of the Cities and Villages Act, Hurd's Revised Statutes, 1908, which prescribe the method by which the city may sell personal property and real estate.

Since the legislature has designated the manner of selling city property there can be no other lawful means of accomplishing this end. In Dillon on Municipal Corporations, 4th Ed., Sec. 578, it is said:

"If the charter or constituent act of the corporation prescribes a particular made in which the property of the corporation shall be disposed of, that mode must be pursued."

McCracken v. San Francisco, 16 Cal. 591.

Herxo v. San Francisco, 33 Cal. 134.

Inasmuch as that portion of Section 2240 above referred to prescribes a method different in character from that defined by the statute, and is inconsistent therewith, I respectfully recommend that the section be amended so that the objectionable language be omitted therefrom, and in accordance with such recommendation I herewith submit an amendment which will accomplish the purpose desired.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) HOWARD W. HAYES,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

717. Storage of Crude Petroleum and Fuel Oil.) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to keep or store crude petroleum or fuel oil upon or in any building, structure, or premises within the City of Chicago in any quantity exceeding ten gallons (except in such a building or structure as is provided for in Section 716 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905), either above or under the surface of the ground, unless the following provisions are complied with.

The tanks for the storage of such petroleum or fuel oil shall be made of metal of sufficient gauge and tensile strength for the purpose for which they are to be used. All portions of such tanks are to be riveted together and shall be made liquid tight. Every such tank shall have a manhole and shall be equipped with adequate ventilating or safety devices.

No tanks other than those located in buildings constructed under the provisions of Section 716 of this Article, whether placed above or below the surface of the ground, shall have a building or structure of any kind whatsoever over or above the same; provided, however, that if any such tank be located near a railroad track or manufactory or place where sparks are likely to fall and it is desired, in order to obviate such danger, to construct over such tank a shed or shelter, such shed or shelter may be constructed of incombustible material only, upon a permit in writing therefor being issued by the Commissioner of Buildings; and such permit shall only be issued if it shall be shown that such shed or shelter is necessary and upon the express agreement that such shed or shelter shall be used for no other purpose than affording protection or shelter and shall not be used for storage, manufacturing, residence, office or any other purpose whatsoever.

If such wall be ten feet high or less it shall be at least twelve inches in thickness, and four inches in thickness shall be added for every additional ten feet or major fraction thereof of height added to such wall. Such wall shall entirely surround or inclose such tank; provided, however, that an opening may be constructed in such enclosing wall to permit access to the tank. Such opening shall contain a liquid-tight door made of incombustible material, either sliding or opening inward and of sufficient strength to resist any pressure which may be brought to bear on such door by the bursting of the tank enclosed in such wall.

When any tank for the storage of crude petroleum or fuel oil is placed beneath the surface of the ground outside of buildings, such tank shall not contain more than sixty-five hundred (6,500) gallons, and it shall be constructed, drained, vented and supplied with safety appliances and devices according to the provisions for outside underground tanks in Section 719 of this Article.

All such tanks and walls described in this section shall be constructed in accordance with plans and specifications which shall have been submitted to and approved by the Commissioner of Buildings.

719. Tanks for Storage of Oils.) Any person, firm or corporation desiring to use any space underneath the surface of the ground, or underneath any building in the City of Chicago, for the construction, maintenance or use of any tank thereunder for the storage of any one or more of the oils or fluids mentioned in the preceding section, shall first obtain a permit so to do from the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago, and no such permit shall be issued without first being approved by the Commissioner of Buildings and the Fire Marshal of the City of Chicago, and said permit may be revoked by the Commissioner of Public Works at any time.

Applications for such permits shall be in writing, stating specifically the location, the space desired to be used, the length, breadth and depth, together with the measurement in feet from the surface of the ground to the top of such tank and shall contain the plans and specifications for the construction of said tank, its connections, fittings, openings and safety appliances.

Each tank shall be provided with iron vent-pipe not less than one and one-half inches in diameter, connected with the tops of such tank and provided with a screen of thirty mesh brass wire at or near the tank connection, and said vent-pipe shall be carried up to the outer air at least four feet higher than the roof of any building which is within thirty (30) feet of such tank, and shall terminate in a goose-neck covered with a brass wire screen of one-sixteenth inch mesh. If there is no building within thirty (30) feet of such tank, said vent-pipe shall extend not less than ten feet above such tank. Said tanks and the installation thereof shall be subject to the supervision and approval of the Commissioner of Public Works.

Tanks for the storage of one or more of the oils or fluids mentioned in the preceding section, containing an aggregate of not more than two hundred sixty (260) gallons may be built underneath buildings. Every such tank shall be enclosed by a casing of concrete at least six inches in thickness, and when so constructed the top of such tank shall be at least two feet below the surface of the basement floor, which shall be constructed of concrete not less than six (6) inches thick. Such buildings, tanks and premises shall be open at all times to such inspection and also to the inspection of other accredited officers of the City.

SECTION 2. Nothing in the provisions of this ordinance shall be construed as repealing any of the provisions of an ordinance for the storage of gasoline in the alleys of the City, passed by the City Council, March 11, 1907, pages 3459 to 3461, inclusive, of Council Proceedings of that date.

Said inspection upon the request of a consumer shall be made substantially in accordance with the following requirements: Whenever any consumer of gas furnished by a gas company furnishing gas in the city shall make a request for such inspector to have any meter or meters so furnished and installed by such gas company on the premises of such consumer inspected for the purpose of ascertaining whether such meter registers accurately and correctly and pays the fee as hereinafter fixed, said inspector shall proceed to make a test of such gas meter. Before making any such test the inspector shall give notice to the person making application for such test, and also to the gas company whose meter is about to be tested, of the time and place where he intends to test such meter. Notice to the company shall be given in writing sent by mail to such gas company at its principal office in the city and notice shall be sent to such applicant in writing by mail addressed to the premises described in the application for such test. Such notice shall be mailed at least twenty-four hours before the time set for the test of such meter. All meters shall be tested at a pressure which will balance a column of water one and five-tenths of an inch in height, and the accuracy of such meter shall be determined by the use of standard meter provers designed and constructed for the purpose.

There shall be maintained in the office of the Inspector of Gas Meters and Gas at least three standard gas meters which have been tested, sealed and certified by the United States Bureau of Standards. The meters so maintained shall be used as standards for the purpose of checking the working provers which are used by said Inspector in checking and testing meters used by consumers of gas. "The unit of standard of light shall be that intensity of light emitted in a horizontal direction by one standard English sperm candle, when burning at the rate of 120 grains of sperm an hour.

"In order to facilitate the daily tests of candle power the standard Vernon-Harcourt Pentane Lamp of ten candle power may be used. This standard, however, shall be standardized monthly with a standard Vernon-Harcourt Pentane lamp, which has been verified within one month by comparison with the aforesaid standard English sperm candle, or directly with the aforesaid candle.

A communication as follows, which was ordered published and placed on file:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHICAGO, November 22, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—It has come to my notice through newspaper reports and otherwise that some opposition may develop in your Honorable Body to an additional appropriation to pay the expenses of the Commission on Municipal Expenditures. I hope these reports are unfounded. Strict official etiquette would prescribe that I refrain from expressing an opinion on the subject at this time (before the subject is officially before me), but the unusual character of the situation will excuse me, I hope, for taking the step.

I am in favor of providing for the Commission on Municipal Expenditures all the money it may need for carrying, to the earliest possible conclusion, the most thorough possible inquiry into municipal expenditures. I hope such provision will be made without delay. All of us, the members of your Honorable Body as well as the members of the executive and administrative branches of the municipal government, ought to be interested in having the work of this commission done as thoroughly as possible and as quickly as is consistent with searching work, to the end that we may get a report which will in fairness and completeness justify the undertaking.

I appointed this Commission on Municipal Expenditures by your authority. Three of its members are members of your Honorable Body, Alderman Merriam, Alderman Snow and Alderman Finn. The other members are Walter H. Wilson, Comptroller of the City of Chicago, David R. Forgan, A. C. Bartlett, Frank I. Bennett, William A. Tilden, John W. Alvord, George G. Tunell and Walter L. Fisher. I appointed these men because I had confidence in their integrity, their judgment, their fairness and their ability to make an inquiry of this kind. Some of them agreed to serve only at my earnest personal solicitation. For this reason, if for no other, I would regret to see any action taken by your Honorable Body which might be construed by prejudiced minds to look like a disposition to hamper the Commission's operations.

But the main reason for being liberal with this commission is that we all want the inquiry into municipal expenditures to be as thorough as possible. I hope it will go into the expenditures of every department and bureau of the municipal government—every pumping station, every engine house, every police station, every nook and cranny. It should cover not only the work of the various departments and bureaus today, but the work of those departments and bureaus in the past. It should develop the loose practices and customs that have grown up with the years of shifting administrations. It should concern itself with all the transactions of the respective departments, not merely with scattered incidents. It should concern itself with getting at the facts—all the facts—concerning each department.

I have confidence that the work of the municipal government during this administration, judged as a whole, has been well done. I believe the work of this commission carried through honestly and thoroughly will demonstrate it. I have seen these department heads working holidays, Sundays and nights to increase the efficiency of their respective departments. They have inaugurated many improvements. The work of practically every department in the city government, I believe, is now carried on with greater efficiency that ever before. As a direct consequence, the credit of the city is now on a higher plane than it has ever been. The Efficiency Commission, which I appointed last spring, has been laboring unselfishly since April and has made, for the first time in Chicago's history, a complete analysis of the city's employment service embracing classification and grading of employees, systematizing of the payroll, providing for uniform salaries for uniform work and covering all details looking toward getting a full day's efficient work for a full day's pay. The co-operation of the department heads in keeping expenditures within revenues and in seeking to coordinate their work has been a decided advance in municipal government methods in Chicago. But these men can not have accomplished everything. That would be more than human. More can be done to bring the municipal government to a higher state of efficiency, and if wrong has been committed and covered up, nobody can be more eager to know the facts than I and the men who are associated with me in the administration of municipal affairs.

We are living in a tremendously large city which has grown up with a rapidity that is the marvel of the world. As a consequence of our rapid growth our municipal government is loosely organized. As the city has grown and new tasks have confronted it its governmental organization has increased by the addition of a bureau here and a department there without the whole being systematized and co-ordinated.

We have now a municipal government that expends millions of dollars a year and has on its pay roll—the "city hall" pay roll of the city government proper—an army of employees that varies from 14,000 to 16,000, according to the season. In September the exact number was 14,518. Of this vast army of employes, more than 98 per cent. hold their positions under the civil service law. In a municipal government so constituted—so big, so loosely organized and with such an army of employees—it would be a miracle if the expenditure of millions of dollars every year could be carried on without some waste and some errors. No private business organization has ever carried on such a big enterprise, as the City of Chicago is, without developing faults and flaws in its system. The best evidence of this is that the biggest and best business concerns in the country find it necessary from time to time to call in experts from the outside whose profession it is to suggest changes of method, to reorganize and systematize, and to discharge as it were the functions of a "business doctor" so as to restore a big and successful private enterprise to perfect health. When private business enterprises, manned by the best men to be had, all subject to instant dismissal for inattention to duty, thus develop faults in their business methods, what wonder if similar defects should be found in the business affairs of the City of Chicago?

Therefore, I repeat, this inquiry into municipal expenditures cannot be made too thorough. I earnestly urge you to deal liberally with the commission so that its work may not be hampered by lack of funds. Let us find out where the flaws are and apply the remedy. I and those associated with me in responsibility for the city's administrative affairs will welcome the commission's help in finding the flaws, to the end that when this mayoralty term expires a year from next April, the proper and businesslike handling of public business will have become so intrenched as a municipal policy that this great city will never tolerate a return to the carelessness, indifference and slipshod methods of the past. No investigation can be too searching for me.

Respectfully,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
November 22, 1909.

In re Code Revision, Section 2498.

Mr. Wm. E. Dever, Chairman, Judiciary Committee:

DEAR SIR—This proposed ordinance is technical in its nature and merely saves for the city any rights which may accrue under an ordinance which is subsequently amended or repealed and follows the principle and object to be accomplished by statutes of the State of Illinois in cases where suits are brought or actions commenced under statutes which have been superseded or repealed by subsequent enactments.

By its adoption the Law Department will be saved much time and labor in court proceedings and in preparing new ordinances for the city. In the event that this proposed amendment is not adopted by the Council, it will be necessary to add language of similar import to each proposed amendatory or repealing ordinance.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) HOWARD W. HAYES,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Snow presented an ordinance amending Section 1847 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905; an ordinance amending Section 1848 of the said Code; an ordinance amending Section 803 of the said Code; an ordinance amending Section 830 of the said Code; an ordinance amending Chapter XLIX, Article 1 (Section 1734a) of the said Code; an ordinance amending Chapter III (Section 12a) of the said Code; and an ordinance amending Chapter XXXIII (Section 1316a) of the said Code; which were Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

The following communication from the Corporation Counsel was submitted with the said ordinances:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
CHICAGO, November 18, 1909.

Amendments to Code in re letting of contracts.

Hon. B. W. Snow, Chairman Committee on Finance:

DEAR SIR—Pursuant to our recent conversation, I beg to enclose ordinances amending the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905, in regard to the letting of City contracts as follows:

SECTION 1847. As amended, includes contracts for materials and supplies as well as those for work and public improvements in the requirements of this section. Also provides a minimum period of ten consecutive business days for which advertisements shall be published for proposals, except as otherwise provided by statue. Also prohibits the letting of supply contracts for a period extending beyond the end of the current fiscal year, but authorizes the reservation to the City Council of the option to extend any such contract for a further period of not to exceed ninety days. The last feature is inserted at your suggestion.

SECTION 1848. As amended, provides that bids for materials and supplies as well as for work shall be sealed and accompanied by deposit, etc.; other changes in this section are formal.

SECTION 803. As amended, gives to the City Electrician in addition to existing powers the power to enter into contracts for materials and supplies necessary for his department in amounts over five hundred dollars in the same manner as is provided for the letting of similar contracts by the Department of Public Works.

SECTIONS 830 and 1734a. These amendments confer upon the Fire Marshal and the General Superintendent of Police, respectively, powers similar to those outlined as above for the City Electrician.

SECTION 12a. The proposed amendment gives to the City Clerk power to contract for printing and binding the Council Proceedings and for license forms, plates and badges, articles for which that official has received appropriations and let contracts for many years and the provision for which seemed to be especially appropriate to his duties.

SECTION 1316a. Gives express and specific authority to the inspectors of the House of Correction to let contracts for the "ordinary and necessary expenses and repairs of the institution" in the manner provided for the letting of similar contracts by the Commissioner of Public Works. It is probable that the inspectors are given such power by implication in the House of Correction Act. This, together with the fact that they have long exercised the power to contract, makes it advisable to give them express power with reference to necessary expenses and repairs. By defining their powers in this respect the Council would place a necessary limitation upon the right of the inspectors to enter into contracts for extensive permanent improvements such as have been let within the last year.

It is my understanding that unless the Mayor and the Comptroller raise some objection, you intend to introduce the above amendments in the Council and obtain their reference to the proper committee in order that they may be passed upon promptly and in time for publication in the Municipal Code of 1910.

Yours respectfully,

(Signed) WILLIAM K. OTIS,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Ald. Snow presented the following communication from Frederick D. Grant, Major General, U. S. Army, which was ordered published and placed on file:

HEADQUARTERS, DEPARTMENT OF THE LAKES,
CHICAGO, November 19, 1909.

His Honor, Fred A. Busse, Mayor of Chicago:

MY DEAR MAYOR BUSSE—You have probably read in the daily press of a fire which took place at my house on the morning of the 17th instant, and I write to you to congratulate you on the efficiency which your Police and Fire Departments displayed on that occasion.

Patrol Sergeant Henry R. Streeter, in charge, and Officers Orlando Pierce, Anthony Franzen and Theodore J. Keetmann, were on the ground in a remarkably short time. The engine and ladders arrived in a very few minutes after the alarm was given, and went to work with remarkable quickness and thoroughness. The police officers took charge of the fire lines and the firemen took charge of the building, rescuing all the people in the house. Except for the promptness and efficiency of these firemen and policemen, there would have been at least four deaths from the fire.

As soon as the fire was subdued, the police officers took charge of the house and retained control of it, day and night, until this morning, when everything was moved out. While there has been much of my property destroyed, and all of it more or less injured, there has not been a single article missing. The officers mentioned above were relieved at night by Officers Thomas Burns and John Januszewski. They deserve great credit for their promptness, cool-headedness, efficiency and honesty, and will have my everlasting gratitude.

Congratulating you, Mr. Mayor, and the City of Chicago, upon having such splendid men in your departments, believe me,

Faithfully and gratefully yours,

FREDERICK D. GRANT,

Major General, U. S. Army.

The following report of the Municipal Efficiency Commission, which was, on motion of Ald. Snow, ordered published and placed on file:

CHICAGO, November 29th, 1909.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

Members of the Commission, consisting of Frank I. Bennett, Bernard W. Snow, Walter H. Wilson, Patrick J. O'Connell, Charles G. Dawes, Nicholas R. Finn, Col. Henry S. Dietrich (since deceased) B. E. Sunny, John J. Hanberg, Charles M. Foell, Otto Schneider, and Elton Lower, Chairman, appointed by His Honor, the Mayor, on authority of the City Council, spent eight months in making an analysis of the municipal employment service.

The plan upon which the Commission worked was to familiarize itself with existing conditions, plan the remedy intended to correct ineffective systems and inadequate methods, and so far as possible, in co-operation with departments, put the changes decided upon in immediate force. Most of the recommendations the Commission makes are intended to follow up the results it has accomplished. Such other suggestions as this report contains are the result of conclusions in regard to other subjects which came to notice during inquiry into the employment service.

Investigation of exact conditions was made in each of the departments. The conditions thus shown have been made a matter of record and data concerning the entire classified service is being compiled for ready reference as verification of the changes affected or recommendations made.

Work of the Commission has been done under the following heads, enumerated in the constructive order in which they were considered:

Classification of Positions—involving a study of duties of the entire service approximately 14,000 employes, work done in conference with Civil Service Commission—classification adopted accepted by that body as the official working basis of the merit board in examination—the City Council in appropriating salaries—and the departments in handling working forces.

Grading and Uniform Salaries—approval of the plan of grading and payment of salaries upon the basis of duties performed—adjustment of positions to grades established and recommendation of uniform salaries in the grades not previously established—90 per cent adjustment accomplished—work remaining must await passage of pending appropriation bill.

Elimination of titles—confined largely to clerical and inspection forces—titles made descriptive of requirements of positions—places of similar duties in various departments combined under same title—as in case of grades work cannot be finally concluded until after the passage of the appropriation bill.

Classification of Inspection—similar lines of inspection merged with a view to establishing uniform salaries for similar duties and simplifying the problem of filling positions and handling working forces. Line of inspection indicated and adopted in co-operation with the police department by which the efficiency of the inspection service may be greatly increased by use of police without additional expense of time or money.

Method of Appropriation—recommendation against blanket appropriation items—plan adopted and in force through comptroller's office for specifically itemizing all appropriations.

Pay-roll Schedule—adoption of a uniform system of handling pay-rolls of the city covering approximately 28,000 items each month—pay-rolls to be handled by department or bureau at different periods during the month to avoid the necessity of making out rolls in advance of service performed and confusion in handling the same.

Paying Employes—adoption of a system by which the comptroller's office pays directly employes at work—estimated saving of time alone of employes paid, $50,000 annually.

Time-keeping Record—recommendation that the system of checking time of employes be taken up in all departments of the city government with a view to obtaining an accurate check upon the time given the public service by each of its employes.

Organization—plan adopted for filing of record, office plats and charts of department indicating organization and lines of authority—plats made for all departments and ready to be printed.

Civil Service Rules Amended—to meet the recommendations of the Commission, the Civil Service Board changed its rules and regulations covering the following points—compensation not to be increased out of grade except by examination—titles not changed without notice and public hearing—all positions created to be classified by act of Commission—changes in department organization to be reported to the Civil Service Office for record upon official charts and provided that pay-rolls may not be corrected during process of checking and auditing.

Miscellaneous—recommendation that all department printing, as annual and other reports, be directed by one authority with the view to uniformity of style, correctness of English, scrutiny of information and saving in cost—recommendation for greater publicity of municipal advertising of all kinds—recommendation of uniform stationery with a view to style and reduced cost, suggestion in force—permanent record system recommended—recommendation for the establishment of departmental efficiency records.

CLASSIFICATION.

At the outset the Commission found it difficult to proceed without a complete reclassification of the positions in the municipal service. The inconsistencies and resulting confusion due to a multiplicity of titles and incorrect designations in the service made this work difficult. The entire service with all its titles and designations is classified under the civil service divisions. This classification was made of the positions as appropriated for by the City Council for 1909. While it shows changes of titles made prior to that time by the Civil Service Commission and Finance Committee it does not indicate subsequent elimination or merging of titles. That cannot be shown until after the passage of the pending budget. The classification by duties decided upon has been accepted by the Civil Service Commission. Changes will not affect it or in any way involve the principle on which it is based. Following is the classification:

GRADES.

The principle involved in grading the service upon the basis of duties performed as determined upon by the Finance Committee and the Civil Service Commission, a year ago, this Commission finds to be sound. This is equally true of the effort made at that time to establish uniform salaries in the grades. At the suggestion of this Commission minor changes were made in some of the schedules. The scheme contemplates the grading of positions, not individuals. In as much as a large portion of the service was out of grade, when this work was started, it will be some time before all employes in the service have attained their proper grade. Ultimately the Commission believes that the plan, if intelligently directed, will give the city a thoroughly graded service.

The schedule adopted for the clerical service will serve to illustrate the method of grading based upon duties. Positions in this service are divided into five classes, and the classes into grades based upon authority, responsibility and duties. The schedule is as follows:

Class IV.

Positions the duties of which are supervisory, involving responsibility and the highest order of clerical ability, or positions the duties of which require special qualifications or recognized expert knowledge.

Grade A.....$3600
Grade B..... 3000
Grade C..... 2700

Class III.

Positions the duties of which do not involve initial responsibility but which are supervisory, involving accountability for the work of others or independent judgment in the execution of specialized or expert duties.

Grade A.....$2400
Grade B..... 2040
Grade C..... 1800

Class II.

Positions the duties of which require special training, skill and original thought, with fixed responsibility, which may or may not be supervisory.

Grade A.....$1680
Grade B..... 1500
Grade C..... 1320

Class I.

Positions the duties of which are of general routine, requiring skill and accuracy.

Grade A.....$1200
Grade B..... 1080
Grade C..... 960

Sub-Clerical.

Positions involving the performance of simple routine duties, as attendants, messengers, copyists and similar positions. Advancement after the first year's service in the lowest grade to be based on seniority schedule.

Grade A..... $840
Grade B..... 600-720

Original certification or appointment is to the lowest grade of the class, and while the schedule provides 13 grades original lists are made of 5 classes. Promotion is from grade to grade.

Similar schedules are provided for the library and engineering branches (operating engineering excepted), while the medical, fire, police and inspection services are graded by rank. Promotion is from lowest to highest rank according to authority, responsibility and duties. The best example of this schedule is in the police and fire departments in which the positions run from patrolman to chief and from pipeman and truckman to fire marshal.

The schedule for operating engineering is based more upon responsibility than actual duties. The grades run from one to five with corresponding salaries, uniform in the grades.

This system of grading make it possible to maintain uniform standards in examination for entrance to the service. It also establishes uniform salaries in the grades. The Civil Service Rule governing it provides that no salary may be increased out of grade.

The salaries set opposite the grades in the Clerical Service are not necessarily fixed, nor do they entirely respresent the judgment of the Commission as to the value of the services in the grade. They are, however, comparative from the highest to the lowest. Reduction or increase should be proportionate. The point made by the Commission is that all employes in any of these grades or rank of service should receive the same compensation for their services.

The new grading system does not affect the official grades (old grades) of employes. Those out of grades under the old system are still out of grade but assurance is given by the Civil Service Commission that it will undertake to give all such employes an opportunity to obtain their right grades in the service and get in line for promotion. There is nothing in the change to alarm any employe performing the duties of the positions as graded whether they are in or out of grade.

INSPECTION.

Under existing conditions, the Commission does not view with favor suggestions considered with a view to the creation of a Bureau of Inspection. One of the chief advantages urged for the plan is ready assignment, recall and reassignment of men to departments. Such a clearing house of inspection is, in the opinion of the Commission, contemplated by the Civil Service Law, which, if intelligently applied, practically makes the Civil Service Commission such a bureau. Under the present system employes are assigned and laid off and returned to the Civil Service list and are re-assigned to the various departments. Neither does the Commission consider it practical to use members of the Police Department for any kind of technical inspection, certainly not at this time. It does believe that the police may be used to advantage in increasing the efficiency of the inspection service.

Data were obtained from leading cities in the United States and Canada describing the kind of inspection work performed by their respective police departments. Colonel Le Roy T. Steward, General Superintendent of Police, is in thorough accord with the Commission's decision that the members of the Police Department should do much general inspection of an observation character.

This proposed inspection can be done, the Commission and general superintendent of police agree, without loss of time or additional expense and without in any way hampering police efficiency. On the contrary it is believed that police efficiency will be increased thereby.

In conference with Colonel Steward it was agreed to have the patrolmen on their beats report daily on the following:

1. Sidewalks, streets and alleys:

(a)—Defective sidewalks—dangerous or unsatisfactory condition.

(b)—Defective pavement in streets—possible cause of accidents or embarrassment to traffic.

(c)—Building operations—material in streets without permit.

(d)—Street openings—permits required.

2. Water:

(a)—Use of fire hydrants—permits required.

(b)—Sprinkling—observation of prescribed hours, improper street sprinkling.

(c)—Public service—Damaged fire hydrants, etc.

3. Lights:

(a)—Street lights—lamps out of service, damaged or broken lamps or lamp posts.

4. Sanitary:

(a)—Alleys—unsanitary condition.

(b)—Garbage—non-removal of refuse from alleys, lots and highways.

(c)—Dead animals—presence to be reported.

5. Danger:

(a)—Overhanging signs and awnings that are a menace.

(b)—Billboards—not properly secured or dangerous to pedestrians.

(c)—Fires—not permitted on vacant lots, alleys or highways.

(d)—Buildings—danger in abandoned structures.

6. Speeding Vehicles:

(a)—Automobiles, etc.—identity of speed law violators.

7. Smoke Ordinances:

(a)—Violations—visual evidence to be reported.

Inspection by police involves system of daily reports by patrolmen on blanks provided for that purpose. These reports will be received at police headquarters and from there forwarded as sources of information to departments affected by conditions reported upon. The police reports will greatly enlarge the city's general inspection service. All departments will have valuable and prompt first-hand sources of information, to be followed by technical departmental inspection. It is expected that this continuous and systematic reporting of nuisances will abate many law violations and in the end will greatly enhance the city's health and safety.

Upon inquiring into the inspection service, the question arose as to the actual cost for work of that nature. It was supposed and the supposition justified on its face that inspection expense would exceed $1,100,000 this year. This opinion it appeared was formed from the budget for 1909 and was based on the gross amount of all items specifically providing for inspection and upon blanket items where inspection was mentioned.

The Commission caused each blanket appropriation item to be analyzed. This work led to expert accounting investigation on behalf of the Commission within every department having blanket appropriation items. Every amount was itemized so minutely that the exact expenditure for inspection under each appropriation item was ascertained. For the period beginning January 1 and ending September 30, 1909, $627,997.94 was expended. On that basis there would have been expended on December 31 about $825,000, allowing for the fact that the ratio of inspection expense would not be kept up during November and December. However, there is a 1909 item of $72,000 appropriated for water inspectors in the Bureau of Water, $54,000 of which had been spent up to September 30 and which was included in the $627,997.94 for purely assessing services. Deducting the $54,000 from the $627,997.94 leaves as expended to September 30, $573,997.94, or an inspection cost for the whole year of $765,000. This latter amount still would be reduced by $80,000 which was appropriated for class of work described as inspection which was not inspection at all. Reference is made to the positions formerly known as medical inspectors (which have been changed to health officers) and to those former incorrect inspection titles in the Health Department now changed to bureau and assistant bureau chiefs. Deducting this $80,000 from the $765,000, $685,000 is a fair approximate estimate of the cost of the inspection service for the year instead of $1,100,000 estimated without facts or foundation.

Elimination and correction of titles become a large factor in the effort made to classify inspection.

In the Building Department the only changes of titles contemplated are those of "Chief Building Inspector" to "Building Inspector in Charge" and "Chief Elevator Inspector" to "Elevator Inspector in Charge."

Hereafter the title "Clerk and Inspector of the Board of Examining Engineers" will be "Clerk" and the former inspectors will be "Inspectors of Engineer's Licenses."

The title changes provided in the Board of Local Improvements are as follows:

General Paving Inspectors to Paving Inspectors in Charge.

Chief Sewer Inspectors to Sewer Inspectors in Charge.

Chief Sewer Pipe Inspector to Sewer Pipe Inspector in Charge.

Chief House Drain Inspector to House Drain Inspector in Charge.

Asphalt Inspectors to Asphalt Inspectors in Charge.

Sidewalk Inspectors to Paving and Sidewalk Inspectors.

Sidewalk Inspection to Paving and Sidewalk Inspection.

Sub-Paving Inspectors to Paving and Sidewalk Inspectors.

Cement Inspectors to Paving and Sidewalk Inspectors.

Cement Samplers and Shippers to Paving and Sidewalk Inspectors.

Chief Brick Inspector to Brick Inspector in Charge.

"Material Inspector" will hereafter describe the former position of "Lumber Inspector" in the Department of Supplies.

In the Department of Health, the former titles of "Chief Medical Inspector", "Assistant Chief Medical Inspector," "Registrar of Vital Statistics", "Assistant Registrar of Vital Statistics", "Chief Hospital Ambulance Inspector", "Chief of Sanitary Inspectors", "Assistant Chief of Sanitary Inspectors" and "Chief of Food Inspectors" did not properly describe their duties. They are bureau or assistant bureau chiefs and will be so designated, as they do not perform inspection duty.

Other changes are made as follows in this department:

Chief Dairy Inspector to Food Inspector in Charge.

Chief of Disinfectors to Disinfector in Charge.

Funeral and Disinfector Inspectors to Funeral Inspectors.

Fish Inspectors to Food Inspectors.

Milk Inspectors to Food Inspectors.

Dairy Inspectors to Food Inspectors.

Meat Inspectors to Food Inspectors.

Ice Inspectors to Food Inspectors.

Changes in this department alone eliminated eight titles. Hereafter the former fish, milk, dairy, meat and ice inspectors can be assigned in strict conformance with Civil Service law to any one of the five kinds of inspection. This will facilitate the work of the department and increase its efficiency, where formerly the department was handicapped by collection of titles not fully descriptive of duties. Under the new plan, also, one Civil Service examination will provide an eligible list for all kinds of food inspection; in the past five examinations would have been necessary.

In the budget of former years provision was made for a large number of medical inspectors (this year 100). The Efficiency Commission contends that not only is the title misleading but the actual medical work of physicians employed under the title has suffered a handicap of having their duties erroneously described as inspection. They are health officers serving as school physicians and inspection has been no part of their duties.

A pronounced change eliminating all inspection titles and properly describing the duties, appears in the recommendation involving the Bureau of Water. Fifty so-called "water inspectors" do specific work as "assistant field assessors". Hereafter their positions will be so described. They ascertain the amount of water service in all buildings and collect the data upon which the charges are based. Inspection is no part of their duties. So, also, the former title of "chief water inspector" is to be "field assessor in charge."

Further in this department, the men classed as "expert meter and plumbing inspectors" will be described as "expert meter and plumbing examiners" for the reason that they examine into complaints of excessive meter charges and have no inspection duties to perform.

The title of "Chief House Drain Inspector" in the Bureau of Sewers will be "House Drain Inspector in Charge", and that of "Pipe Inspector", "Sewer Pipe Inspector".

Inspection titles are changed in the Bureau of Streets as follows:

Street Opening and Obstruction Inspectors to Paving and Sidewalk Inspectors.

General Corporation Inspector in Charge to Public Utility Inspector in Charge.

General Corporation Inspectors to Public Utility Inspectors.

Sub-Corporation Inspectors to Assistant Public Utility Inspectors.

These changes are made in the Bureau of Water Pipe Extension:

General Water Pipe Inspector to Water Pipe Inspector in Charge.

Chief Plumbing Inspector to Plumbing Inspector in Charge.

Sub-water Pipe Inspectors to Water Pipe Inspectors.

Changes in the Bureau of Electricity are:

Chief Electrical Inspector to Electrical Inspector in Charge.

Gas Lamp Inspectors to Gas, Street Lighting Supervisors.

Meter Testers to Gas Meter Inspectors.

No change in titles is recommended in the Department of Boiler and Steam Plant Inspection, City Sealer's Department, Bureau of Bridges, and Bureau of Engineering.

As illustrating how closely the work of classification of inspection, elimination of titles, department organization, and adjustment to grades is interwoven, attention is directed to the fact that the duties of the following positions are technically so similar although of different type that it is recommended they be ranked and paid on the same basis:

Deputy Smoke Inspectors, Boiler Inspectors, Fire Escape Inspectors, Building Inspectors, Structural Iron Inspectors, Elevator Inspectors.

It is also recommended that assistant smoke inspectors and boiler inspectors' helpers be classed in one group; also that all employes without technical knowledge who assist inspectors and inspectors whose duties are largely those of observation shall be ranked and paid on the same basis.

The Commission holds as unnecessary the position of feed inspector in the Police Department and recommends that it be abolished. It is recommended that the salaries of Paving and Sidewalk Inspectors in the Board of Local Improvements be graded on seniority schedule and that the principle also be applied to the Deputy Sealers in the City Sealer's Department. It is further recommended that the appropriation for Assistant Field Assessors in the Bureau of Water should be for a specific number of months of field assessing at a regular graded monthly rate of pay, thereby enabling the department to take advantage of weather conditions and employ as many men as may be expedient at a given time. This would not limit the department to any given number for any given period. It fixes the rate of pay and the amount to be expended. It has not been decided that the principle shall be applied to the water survey and other classes of inspection in the Bureau of Water Pipe Extension, but the recommendation undoubtedly will be made and it also will be made to apply to electrical inspection in the Bureau of Electricity.

Carrying the idea further and into the Department of Health, the Commission is of the opinion that, without definite action, it might be applied to certain kinds of employment; for instance, health officers (formerly called medical inspectors). Former appropriations have provided for a certain number of such employes at a yearly salary. It is obvious that in times of epidemic or other exceptional periods many health officers should be utilized while at other times one-half or one-quarter might suffice; hence the appropriation might better be for a given number of months for the services of health officers at a fixed amount per month.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The Commission immediately recognized the misleading interpretation possible from blanket appropriation items, blanket items not only including inspection service but also every expenditure under such a general heading.

Comptroller Walter H. Wilson, and Alderman Bernard W. Snow, Chairman of the Finance Committee, both members of the Commission, agreed that in the 1910 budget there should be no so-called blanket items. With Mayor Busse they took up and put in force the present plan in accordance with which each department head is making up his estimates for the appropriation bill. It contemplates that each department's requirements shall be separately and specifically set forth together with specific appropriation asked for such purpose.

PAY-ROLL.

As a result of the Commission's work, the entire pay-roll system of the city has been changed with a view to saving of time—unnecessary expense, and to securing accuracy in paying city employes. An adequate working schedule has been effected by which various departments are paid at different periods. The plan also carries with it the paying of employes at their places of employment. The pay day schedules provide different working periods for different departments and are so arranged as to make the paying system of the city a continuous operation during the entire month.

For pay-roll purposes the departments are grouped and the working month for each is fixed. For instance the 361 pay-rolls are grouped with a view to the number of rolls of each, as follows:

Period ending on the 5th of the month—9 rolls.

Period ending on the 9th of the month—3 rolls.

Period ending on the 10th of the month—16 rolls.

Period ending on the 11th of the month—29 rolls.

Period ending on the 12th of the month—24 rolls.

Period ending on the 13th of the month—6 rolls.

Period ending on the 15th of the month—111 rolls.

Period ending on the 19th of the month—3 rolls.

Period ending on the 24th of the month—3 rolls.

Period ending on the 27th of the month—10 rolls.

Period ending on the 28th of the month—20 rolls.

Period ending on the last day of the month—127 rolls.

These pay-rolls in every case are paid five days after the end of the working period. The new system is illustrated in detail by the following showing the rolls for the working period ending on the 10th and paid on the 15th of each month; similar detailed schedules being provided for all rolls:

PAYROLL SCHEDULE.

Period ends on the 10th of each month.

Payroll reaches Civil Service Commission on the 11th day of each month.
Payroll reaches Auditor on the 12th day of each month.
Payroll reaches Paymaster on the 13th day of each month.
Pay Day—the 15th of each month.

It is estimated that this plan will save not less than $50,000 a year in working time alone, and there will be considerable saving in clerical and administrative time. Whatever the saving in money and time, the Commission has caused an obsolete method to be put aside and has provided one comprehensive, simple and up-to-date pay-roll system. The change obviates the necessity of making out advance pay-rolls—in many cases 15 days before due.

Under the old system men were called away from their work and paid for their time while congregating at a given point awaiting the arrival of the paymaster. All unskilled labor now is paid when at work or at a point convenient to employment. In addition to that, all employes, official service, and skilled labor as well as unskilled, are paid by the paymaster or his representatives at the place of employment or as near as possible in the presence of the department, or bureau, or division head or of the foreman or superintendent.

Something of the detail of this work may be understood when it is stated that in arranging to pay the Police and Fire Departments, the men will be paid in their precincts and at the engine houses. The time schedule for delivering pay-checks is that which in each instance meets the requirements of the service with the least interruption to work. Some of these pay hours have been arranged as late as 7 o'clock in the evening at roll-call in the Police Department, in order that men may not lose any time from their various assignments to duty.

Every city employe, whether street laborer or department head, is paid on the same time basis. He receives his pay five days after the expiration of a given period of service. The perfection of this new system of paying has involved a much greater expenditure of time and effort than appears on the surface.

There is further work to be done in making the system still more effective. This involves ascertaining the means of keeping time so accurately that there can be no question that the city receives what it pays for. In other words, it is determined that there should not only be accurate record of money paid for service received but that the records shall show that the time or service actually was given.

The idea upon which the Commission is working is that the rolls should be made out from time sheets or time books, but it is not prepared, at this time, to report more fully the system to meet this problem.

EFFICIENCY.

The Commission is satisfied that the subject of efficiency of municipal employes is one that must be met at any early date. It is one that naturally follows classification, grading, appropriation and paying the public service. During the early period of the enforcement of the Civil Service Law, it probably was not possible to follow it with a system to promote and recognize efficiency necessary to its successful operation. That period, in the opinion of the Commission, has passed.

The points to be covered by such a system are increased efficiency in the service and records of individual efficiency for promotion, which may also be made the basis of lay-off instead of the present seniority rule. As a result of its inquiry, the Commission is satisfied that a general efficiency record system is not practical, as it is clear to it that the same method of recording efficiency in one branch of the service is not applicable to another. It is equally certain that no system of recording efficiency that is not subject to verification and verified will prove effective. Members of the Commission are further impressed with the fact that work similar to that which it has endeavored to accomplish should not be periodical, but permanent.

It believes a practical system combining these two ideas can be devised. It is not prepared at this time to recommend any detailed plan. At a later date it hopes to be able to report a practical efficiency scheme applicable to the various departments.

DUPLICATION OF WORK.

The investigation of the Commission of the subject Duplication of Work developed the fact that there was less of this evil in the Municipal Service than was indicated by a superficial inquiry. Erroneous titles and misleading appropriations gave rise to a natural belief that the city employes, in many instances, duplicate work. The investigation showed rather that departments or offices established by law duplicate work. In very few instances duties actually overlap; such cases were dealt with by the Commission through the departments. The subject of Duplication of Work in compliance with various statutes covering public service, the Commission did not attempt to deal with for two reasons; lack of authority to correct the evil, and lack of time to go into the question of complete plan of organization of the city government.

PRINTING.

The Commission has recommended that some central authority be selected for the handling of all copy or printing of a uniform character such as reports, pamphlets, documents, literature, and periodical departmental publications.

Compilation of figures shows that the cost for printing of the city's 1908 reports was $6965.13, that the printing expense in the Department of Health for the current year, exclusive of its annual report, will be approximately $10,725, and the expense of maintaining the printing bureau in the Police Department for the year will be approximately $5650. In addition, every city department has more or less printing of a special nature done. Consideration of this expense led the committee to form the opinion that a saving of at least 33 1-3 per cent in expense could be made if all printing of the character mentioned is supervised by one authority.

Such authority could scrutinize and edit all copy, see that proper paper stock was selected, maintain a uniformity of style and be responsible for the printing and incidental cost. The Commission believes that it could so arrange the distribution of city printing for the House of Correction that the present frequent delays in printing in that institution would be obviated. Further, it is believed that much work can be done in the printing bureau of the Police Department and at less expense. A committee of department heads is considering such a plan in conference with the Commission.

CHARTS OF ORGANIZATION.

The Commission has assisted each department head in the preparation of a chart showing the organization of his department. The charts will be compiled and published after January 1. The plan is similar to that prevailing in many large corporations and in the Federal Service where, on account of intricate departmental organization, they are of great value. They are designed to show lines of authority from the head of a department through bureaus and divisions to the lowest positions.

ALSO,

The following communication, which was, on motion of Ald. Snow, ordered published and placed on file:

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE,
CHICAGO, November 29, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and Aldermen, in City Council Assembled:

GENTLEMEN—Referring to the order introduced by Ald. Cullerton, and passed by your Honorable Body November 15, 1909, I beg to submit the following:

The question of the system of paying city employes was suggested to the Municipal Efficiency Commission, who referred the subject to a sub-committee for report and recommendation. This committee, after much thought and discussion, decided that primarily these points must be covered, viz:

1. No pay roll may be checked by the Civil Service Commission or Auditor until after the end of the period covered by the pay roll, it being held unbusinesslike policy to certify or check rolls before the time is actually earned.

2. Each employe must be paid by a representative of the Comptroller's office, instead of by a foreman or superintendent in charge of work and who also certifies to time worked.

3. Each employe, where practicable, must be paid at his place of work, with the minimum loss of time incident thereto.

4. The work of preparing pay rolls, checking same and delivering pay checks must be distributed throughout the month, thus avoiding congestion in the various divisions handling pay rolls and making possible the fixing of a definite day and hour in each month at which each employe may expect his pay.

Following these lines, a schedule has been prepared, fixing the time and place at which each pay roll must be paid. This schedule covers all city employes, except police and firemen, as to which departments no change will be made until January, 1911.

The benefits accruing to the city are set forth herewith:

SYSTEM OF PAYING SALARIES TO EMPLOYES.

As Formerly—

Number of persons on pay rolls	14,736
Number of persons formerly paid at Paymaster's office	3,140
Number of persons paid by Paymaster on job.	4,102
Number of persons paid

by Superintendent or Foreman... 7,494

——— 14,736

Proposed Plan—

Number persons to be paid at Paymaster's office... 597

Number persons to be paid by Paymaster on job.....14,139

——— 14,736

Estimated annual saving in wages (time saved) by proposed change... . . . . .$40,000

This saving of time is computed on a most conservative basis and will probably be much greater in practice.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) WALTER H. WILSON,
Comptroller.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS.

The Clerk presented a communication as follows, submitted by the Commissioner of Public Works:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, November 29, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and City Council:

GENTLEMEN—Referring to the ordinance passed by your Honorable Body on September 27, 1909, page 1213, requiring the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company to repair a certain portion of the viaduct at 12th street, in which ordinance it was provided that if the company should fail to make said repairs then the Commissioner of Public Works should make the same and charge the expense thereof to the company, also that if the repairs should be made by the Commissioner, then the company should pay to the city as compensation for doing the work 10 per cent. of the amount expended, I beg to state:

This company has stated that it was willing either to do this work itself or to pay the cost of having these repairs made by the city, but, in the latter event, is not willing to be charged with the ten per cent. provided for as above set forth. It is clear that the ordinance as passed requires the ten per cent. to be paid in order to recompense the city for doing the work irrespective of whether the company admitted its liability to make the repairs or not. It is also true, however, that in this and in similar ordinances the percentage in question is intended to be charged simply against companies who refuse or neglect to do the work.

I have had the Law Department prepare the enclosed amended draft of the ordinance omitting the provision for ten per cent. compensation and providing for written acceptance by the company before it shall take effect. The ordinance as amended will, if accepted, become a contract between the city and the company. I, therefore, recommend that your Honorable Body pass the same.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) JOHN J. HANBERG,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ald. Snow moved to pass the ordinance submitted with the said communication.

The motion prevailed, and the said ordinance was passed by yeas and nays as follows:

Yeas—Coughlin, Kenna, Dixon, Pringle, Foreman, Richert, Dailey, McKenna, Sheahan, McCoid, Long, Snow, Merriam, Jones, Emerson, Egan, Hurt, Scully, Novak, Cullerton, Cermak, Zimmer, Evans, Fulton, Lucas, Lawley, Beilfuss, Utpatel, Kunz, Dever, Sitts, Conlon, Bowler, Powers, Finn, Stewart, Foell, Taylor, Clettenberg, Bauler, Britten, Hey, Redwanz, Krumholz, Thomson, Dunn, Reinberg, Lipps, Clancy, Capp, Blencoe, Littler, Golombiewski, Mueller, Burns, McInerney, Roberts, Kearns, Rea, Fisher, Reading, Nolan, Ryan, Forsberg, Clark —65.

Nays—None.

The following is the said ordinance as passed:

AN ORDINANCE

Amending an ordinance requiring the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company to repair the Twelfth street viaduct, passed September 27, 1909, and published at page 1213 of the Council Proceedings.

WHEREAS, On the 27th day of September, 1909, an ordinance was passed requiring the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company to repair a portion of the Twelfth street viaduct as herein set forth, in which ordinance it was also provided that if said company should fail to make said repairs and in consequence thereof the Commissioner of Public Works should make the same, then said company should be charged with the expense of said repairs, and should also pay to the city as compensation for doing said work ten per cent. of the amount so expended; and,

WHEREAS, Said compensation of ten per cent. was intended to be collected only in the event said company should refuse or neglect to make said repairs, and said company has in fact expressed its willingness to make the same but has requested the Commissioner of Public Works to do said work at its expense, and the City of Chicago has entered into a contract for said work; now, therefore,

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That an ordinance adopted September 27, 1909, requiring the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company to repair the Twelfth street viaduct, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1. That the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company shall, within five (5) days after the passage and approval of this ordinance, proceed to repair Twelfth street viaduct in accordance with specifications now on file in the office of the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago and marked "Specifications for building concrete retaining walls, reinforced concrete sidewalks and iron hand railing on south side of Twelfth street, from the west curb line of Holden street to a point 50 feet west of the west line of Holden street," and in accordance with plans also on file in the office of said Commissioner of Public Works and marked "Repair of approaches S. side Twelfth street viaducts, from Holden street to Point 80 feet E. of E. end of Penn. Viaduct."

Section 2. In the event that said Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company shall fail to begin the work of making said repairs in the manner provided by said plans and specifications after it is notified so to do by the Commissioner of Public Works, said Commissioner of Public Works is hereby authorized and directed immediately to proceed to make the repairs provided for by said plans and specifications, and the expense thereof shall be charged to and paid by said Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, and the amount so expended, unless paid by said company to said City of Chicago on demand, shall be recovered from said Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company in any proper action instituted therefor.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage and approval; provided, however, said Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company shall within thirty (30) days from and after the passage hereof, file with the City Clerk its written acceptance of all the terms and conditions of the ordinance as amended.

ALSO,

A communication as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, November 29, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and City Council:

GENTLEMEN—Of the electrically operated bridges twenty-six are connected to the feeders of the Chicago Railways Company, one gets the current from the Chicago City Railway Company, one from the Chicago Electric Transit Company and one from the Calumet and South Chicago Railway Co., for which the city pays the uniform rate of fifty dollars ($50) per month for each bridge. This rate was agreed upon verbally between the officials of the city and the traction companies in 1896, and the agreement was confirmed subsequently by your Honorable Body as far as the Chicago Union Traction Company, the predecessor of the Chicago Railways Company, and the Chicago City Railway Company were concerned.

Based on the swing reports and readings taken at the Van Buren street bridge by the City Engineer he finds the consumption of current per month to average 2,040 kilowatt hours. At the minimum rate of five cents per kilowatt hour, this would be $122.22. On the other downtown bascule bridges the monthly average is somewhat less, about eighty-five ($85.00) dollars, and for the swing bridges and the bridges in the outlying districts the consumption is considerably less, but on the whole the rate of $50 per month appears to be reasonable, and compares favorably with the cost of steam operation, which averages about $63 per month for swing bridges.

In order that the Commissioner of Public Works may secure service from these companies I have had drafted by the Law Department the enclosed ordinance and respectfully ask that the same be passed by your Honorable Body.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) JOHN J. HANBERG,

Commissioner of Public Works.

By PAUL REDIESKE,

Deputy Commissioner.

Ald. Snow moved to refer the said communication and the ordinance submitted therewith, to the Committee on Finance.

The motion prevailed.

ALSO,

A communication as follows, which was referred to the Committee on Finance:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, November 29, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and City Council:

GENTLEMEN—Your attention is respectfully called to the fact that the permits granted by the United States government for the temporary bridges over the North Branch of the Chicago River at Blackhawk street, and over the North Branch Canal at Weed street, expire on December 31st, 1909, and the extension of time for the removal of the two bridges has been refused by the federal authorities. Both structures are in a dilapidated condition and cannot be kept in service for any considerable length of time.

Section 18 of the United States government laws for the protection and preservation of the navigable waters of the United States is as follows:

"If the persons, corporation or association owning or controlling any railroad or other bridge shall, after receiving notice to that effect as hereinbefore required, from the Secretary of War, and within the time prescribed by him, wilfully fail or refuse to remove the same or to comply with the lawful order of the Secretary of War in the premises, such persons, corporation, or association shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, and every month such persons, corporation or association shall remain in default in respect to the removal or alterations of such bridge shall be deemed a new offense and subject the persons, corporation or association so offending to the penalties above described."

There are no funds available under the appropriation ordinance of 1909 for the removal of these two bridges. The estimated cost of the removal of the Blackhawk Street bridge is $5,000.00; for the removal of the Weed Street bridge, $3,000.00.

As the City has but a short time to comply with the Government order, I respectfully ask that the Commissioner of Public Works be authorized, without further delay, to advertise for the removal of these two bridges, and that the sum of $8,000.00 be provided to pay the cost of such removal.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) JOHN J. HANBERG,
Commissioner.

ALSO,

A communication as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, November 29, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I have been advised by the City Engineer that on November 25, 1909, at 12:40 P. M., the Steamer Bethlehem, south bound, collided with the Madison Street bridge, the bridge at the time being directly over the center pier protection, leaving both draws open full width for the passage of the vessel; that the north end of the protection was partly demolished and the bow of the steamer struck the end floor beam of the bridge near the batter post; that the impact was so great that the entire superstructure, consisting of loading or sustaining beams, drum with its radial struts, spider rods and channel iron guard, and the center casting, was so badly damaged and twisted out of shape as to require renewal throughout; that owing to this extensive damage the bridge could not be swung by its machinery, and as the position of the superstructure was such after the collision as to partly overhang the protection and render it likely to be struck by other vessels, work was immediately started to remove the damaged parts preparatory to getting the bridge in position directly over the protection and making permanent repairs.

As long as this bridge is out of commission there is no river crossing between Randolph and Adams streets, a distance of four blocks, and the complete suspension of traffic over the Madison street bridge, necessitating the diversion of team traffic and street cars over the remaining bridges, will obviously aggravate the congestion on these thoroughfares, which were over-crowded before, and cause the public a great deal of delay and inconvenience. For this reason I deem it of the utmost importance that the bridge be put into service at the earliest possible date.

If the usual practice of the Department of Public Works is followed to have the material for this bridge rolled in the mills to required sizes and to insist on chemical and physical tests, it will take sixty days time after the contract is signed for the material to be delivered at the shop. If we deviate from this practice, which the City Engineer advocates in this case, and stock material may be used, the time will be materially reduced. Another saving of time will be effected by limiting the time for advertising for bids for this work to three days instead of ten days or permitting the Commissioner of Public Works to let the contract without advertising. By such an arrangement the completion of the repairs may be cut down from ninety to forty-five days from the day of the letting of the contract. Based on the assumption that the work will be carried on uninterruptedly, day and night, both in the shop and during the erection at the bridge, the cost of the repairs complete will be approximately $25,000.

In view of the importance of this matter and the necessity for placing the bridge in service without any more delay than is possible, I respectfully ask that an appropriation of $25,000.00 be made for this work, the cost to be charged to the owner of the steamer Bethlehem upon its completion, and collected through the Law Department, if possible.

Also that the Commissioner of Public Works be allowed to use stock material, waiving the requirement of chemical and physical tests. Suitable ordinance prepared by the Law Department, hereto attached.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) JOHN J. HANBERG,

Commissioner of Public Works.

Ald. Snow moved to pass the ordinance submitted with the said communication.

The motion prevailed, and the said ordinance was passed by yeas and nays as follows:

Yeas—Coughlin, Kenna, Dixon, Pringle, Foreman, Richert, Dailey, McKenna, Sheahan, McCoid, Long, Snow, Merriam, Jones, Emerson, Egan, Hurt, Scully, Novak, Cullerton, Cermak, Zimmer, Evans, Fulton, Lucas, Lawley, Beilfuss, Utpatel, Kunz, Dever, Sitts, Conlon, Bowler, Powers, Finn, Stewart, Foell, Taylor, Clettenberg, Bauler, Britten, Hey, Redwanz, Krumholz, Thomson, Dunn, Reinberg, Lipps, Clancy, Capp, Blencoe, Littler, Golombiewski, Mueller, Burns, McInerney, Roberts, Kearns, Rea, Fisher, Reading, Nolan, Ryan, Forsberg, Clark —65.

Nays—None.

The following is the said ordinance as passed:

WHEREAS, The Madison Street bridge was recently damaged in a manner to render it useless until extensive repairs thereon can be made; and,

WHEREAS, Also, said bridge is of great public use and the public is greatly inconvenienced and delayed by reason of said bridge having been rendered useless by reason of which an emergency exists; now, therefore,

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That the Commissioner of Public Works be and he is hereby authorized and directed to enter into a contract or contracts for the repair of Madison Street bridge without advertising for bids therefor.

SECTION 2. There is hereby appropriated from Miscellaneous Receipts for the year 1909, or such portion thereof as may be necessary, to be expended in making the repairs provided for by this ordinance, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after its passage and approval.

ALSO,

A report as follows:

CHICAGO, Ill., November 29, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—On May 18, 1908 (Council Proceedings, page 298), your Honorable Body adopted a resolution, requesting this Committee to determine whether or not a practical meter for use on the premises of lessees or subscribers for measured service of the Chicago Telephone Company has been devised, and can take such other action as shall be deemed reasonable and necessary to protect said lessees and subscribers.

In accordance with this resolution, we have this day forwarded to the Chicago Telephone Company the following letter:

"CHICAGO, Ill., November 27, 1909.

Mr. B. E. Sunny, President, Chicago Telephone Co., Chicago, Ill.:

DEAR SIR—We the undersigned Committee, provided for in the ordinance granting a franchise to the Chicago Telephone Company, passed by the City Council, November 6, 1907, to pass upon the question of meters for use on measured service telephones, have in our possession two reports from Robert W. Hunt & Co., engineers, on the mechanical and electrical efficiency of a telephone meter, of which we enclose copies to you.

We are advised in these reports that a meter has now been devised, meeting the requirements of the ordinance, and we hereby order the Chicago Telephone Company to comply with the said ordinance, by installing upon the premises of the lessee or subscriber, a practical meter which will accurately and correctly record the number of outgoing messages or conversations. Our conclusions are based on the engineers' reports.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) JOHN J. HANBERG,
Commissioner of Public Works.
EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE,
Corporation Counsel.
B. W. SNOW,
Chairman, Finance Committee."

Copies of the Engineers' reports referred to are hereto attached. Also copy of reply of B. E. Sunny.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) JOHN J. HANBERG,
EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE,
B. W. SNOW.

Ald. Snow moved that the said report, together with the Engineer's reports and a communication submitted therewith, be referred to the Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light.

The motion prevailed.

ALSO,

A communication as follows, which was referred to the Committee on Local Transportation:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, November 29, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and City Council:

GENTLEMEN—The present swing bridge over the Chicago River at Lake street has been ordered removed by the United States Government on account of being an obstruction to navigation, the removal to be completed by December 31, 1910. Preliminary plans for a new bridge at this point are now being prepared, but means must be provided to find new routes for the Chicago and Oak Park Elevated Railroad and the several surface lines which now cross this bridge, as a temporary structure will be impracticable for various reasons during the construction of a new bridge at this place.

The surface traffic can probably be distributed over the adjoining streets and the bridges at Randolph street and at Madison street without very serious inconvenience, but as regards the elevated railroad it might be possible that a temporary permit or franchise be granted said road on Canal street, from Lake to Madison streets; thence east on Madison street to Market street or Fifth avenue, where connection could be made with the Market street stub end of the structure, or the Union Loop.

This proposition involves the reinforcing of the Madison Street viaduct and the present Madison Street bridge in such a manner as to safely carry the elevated trains.

I believe the cost of this extra work should be borne by the elevated railroad company.

As the Madison Street bridge is now out of commission, I have treated it in a separate communication to your Honorable Body.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) JOHN J. HANBERG,
Commissioner.

ALSO,

A communication as follows, which was referred to the Committee on Harbors, Wharves and Bridges:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, November 29, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and City Council:

GENTLEMEN—Pursuant to the order of your Honorable Body of September 27th, 1909, page 1223, Council Proceedings, that report be made of the condition of docks at the ends of certain streets referred to in said order, I beg to state:

The east side of Orleans street, between the Chicago River and south line of Carroll avenue is in fair condition, and is occupied by the Dunham Towing and Wrecking Company under a lease with the City of Chicago expiring April 30th, 1910, at a rental of $500.00 per annum, revocable at any time on sixty days' notice in writing.

The west half of the street is in very bad condition and would require rebuilding to make it serviceable for landing purposes. It would cost approximately $1,200.00 to construct a new dock for this purpose. This west half, together with the south half of Carroll street, between Orleans and Kingsbury streets, is occupied by the Davidson Marble Company under a month to month agreement with the City by which they are paying the City $77.33. In addition to this, the same company is authorized by ordinance to maintain a switch track across Carroll street at its intersection with Kingsbury street, in which the compensation is $150.00 per annum.

The Carroll street dock is in poor condition, and would cost approximately $1,400.00 to rebuild it so as to be suitable for landing purposes.

North Branch street on the east side of the Canal is in first-class condition. A suitable landing can be constructed here for approximately $250.00. The south half of this street on the east side of Canal has been under lease to Montgomery Ward & Co., for which they have been paying the City $300.00 per annum. This lease has recently expired and renewal has not yet been made of same, I am informed, as there is pending before the Committee on Local Industries an application by said company for a vacation of the entire street between the North Branch Canal and Hawthorne street. The street is not opened on the west side of the Canal east of Halsted street. The ground where it would be cut through is occupied by the Ship Owners' Dry Dock Company. The records of the Bureau of Maps show this street to be opened and do not give any date of vacation of any portion of the street.

The dock on the west side of the Canal is in good condition, and if required could be made suitable for landing purposes at a cost of approximately $250.00.

Rees street on the east side of the Canal is occupied by the Chicago Lighterage Company for a distance of thirty feet from the dock line with a loading station authorized under a lease granting to said company the use of this and other streets on the North Branch of the Chicago River and Canal. Said company is paying $491.48 per annum for said lease, which expires July 31, 1910. The lease, however, is subject to revocation on giving sixty days' notice in writing. This dock is new and in first-class condition, and could be made suitable for landing purposes at a cost of approximately $250.00.

The street on the west side of the Canal is not opened as a thoroughfare, it being occupied by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company. The south face of a large grain elevator is practically on the north line of the street and where the street would strike the dock, is used to pile lumber. The dock is in good condition. The records of the Bureau of Maps show this street to be vacated by a resubdivision. If required, this dock could be made suitable for landing purposes at a cost of approximately $250.00.

Blackhawk street, east side of Canal.

A new dock has recently been constructed across the full width of the street. It is not occupied. A suitable landing place could be constructed here at a cost of approximately $250.00.

This street is not opened on the west side of the Canal. The Minnesota Elevator, owned by Armour & Co., stands where the street would strike the dock, which is in good condition.

Haines street, on the west side of the Canal, is not opened as a street east of Halsted street. The approach to the Halsted Street bridge closes the street as a thoroughfare on the west side of the Canal. If required the dock could be made suitable for landing purposes at a cost of approximately $250.00.

This street, on the east side of the Canal, is occupied by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal Company. If required, and if proper arrangements could be made with said coal company, this dock could be made suitable for landing purposes at a cost of approximately $250.00.

I am informed that the property on the northeast side of the Canal at North Avenue bridge is owned by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company. The dock is in first-class condition and unoccupied. If proper arrangements can be made with said company this dock could be made suitable for landing purposes at a cost of approximately $250.00.

I am informed that an attempt has been made by the owners of property lying between Rees street, Hickory street, Cherry avenue, Weed street and the North Branch Canal to vacate all streets within that territory under a vacation deed. I understand the matter is now before the Public Lands Committee, that the question as to the legality of this vacation has not been decided, to my knowledge.

The following is a summary of the above estimates:

Street end of Orleans street	$1,200.00
Carroll street (east bank of river)	1,400.00
North Branch street (both sides of Canal)	500.00
Rees street (both sides of Canal)	500.00
Blackhawk street (east side of Canal)	250.00
Haines street (both sides of Canal)	500.00
Northeast bank of North Branch Canal at North Avenue bridge	250.00
Total	$4,600.00

Commissioner of Public Works.

REPORTS OF VARIOUS COMMITTEES TO THE COUNCIL.

FINANCE.

The Committee on Finance submitted a report as follows:

CHICAGO, November 29, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

GENTLEMEN—Your Committee on Finance having had under consideration claims for extra work on contracts existing between the City and Paschen Brothers, The Empire Construction Company and Edward H. Duffy, have refused to recommend allowances for extra work and material done and furnished upon these contracts with the City, because the extra work was ordered without authority from the City Council.

It is provided by Section 1845 of the Revised Code of 1905 that no extra work shall be ordered or authorized to be done by any officer or agent of the City which will involve the expenditure of any money over and above the money fixed as contract price in and by such contract "unless the express authority of the City Council be first secured for such extra work and for the expenditure of the amount to be paid therefor."

No such authority having been secured from the City Council prior to the ordering of this extra work, your Committee on Finance has declined to recommend the payment for such extras because of the express provision in Section 1845 of the Revised Code of 1905.

The purpose of this provision of the Code is plain and is unquestionably salutory, in that it provides a method by which complete publicity must be given prior to such change of contract as will require additional expenditure on the part of the City. Your Committee, however, desires to call attention of the Council to the fact that this section is so drawn that there is no provision made for the ordering of extra or additional work in cases of emergency. It may easily arise, and in at least one of the cases already referred to it did arise, where failure to perform the extra or additional work immediately might result in great inconvenience, and perhaps serious loss, to the City, if it was necessary to delay until such time as authority could be secured from the City Council. Another phase of the question which should receive careful consideration at the hands of the Council is the possible effect of a literal enforcement of the present section bearing upon the ordering of extra work, upon the contract relations between the City and its contractors. If, under a contract regularly let, the necessary force of men and machinery has been arranged to carry on the work in question, and on account of an unexpected necessity arising for some change in specifications, it becomes necessary to keep men and plant idle for the two weeks or more required to refer the matter to the City Council, the question of incidental loss through non-user of such a plant during the time in question might become of large importance.

Your Committee on Finance, while believing emphatically in the general correctness of the policy outlined in the present Section 1845 of the Code of 1905, also believes that provision should be made for the ordering of extra work in cases of such emergency as will not admit of delay without serious loss or inconvenience, and, for that reason, recommends that this communication be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with instructions that it take up and consider the present ordinance with a view of so amending it as to provide for a proper authorization of extra work in cases of emergency without the delay incident to a reference of the whole matter to the City Council.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) B. W. SNOW,
Chairman.

AN ORDINANCE

Licensing and regulating runners.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

(Runner Defined.) The word "runner" as used in this chapter shall be held to mean and is defined as meaning any person who shall ask or solicit the patronage or custom of any traveler or other person for any railroad, steamboat line, bus line or other transportation line or other public vehicle, or any hotel, restaurant, boarding house, store or public house of any kind, on any street, alley or other such public place, within the city.

ness of, or to act as a runner, as defined in the preceding section, unless he shall have first obtained a license so to do in the manner hereinafter set forth; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be held to require any licensed driver of a licensed public vehicle to take out such license as a runner to enable him to solicit patronage for such vehicle while he is acting as driver thereof.

SECTION 3. (Application for License—License Fee—Bond.) Any person desiring to secure a license as a runner under the provisions of this Article shall make application in writing to the Mayor upon a form to be provided by the City Collector. Such application shall set forth the name of the applicant, his residence and occupation and shall be endorsed by at least two responsible citizens of this city who shall certify that the applicant is of good moral character and a fit person to be licensed as a runner, and such application shall further state the name and place of business of the person or corporation for whom such runner is to act in soliciting patronage or custom.

Every such license shall expire on the 31st day of December of each year. Such license may be issued for the unexpired portion of a municipal year upon payment in advance at the rate of three hundred ($300.00) dollars and proof furnished by the applicant to the City Collector that the applicant is not liable for a license fee and did not engage in the business of a runner without a license after the taking effect of this ordinance and prior to the date fixed in his application. No such license shall in any case extend beyond a municipal year.

No such license shall be issued until the applicant shall have executed a bond payable to the City of Chicago in the sum of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars with sureties approved by the City Collector conditioned upon the faithful performance and observance of all the provisions of the ordinances of the City of Chicago now or hereafter in force relating to runners.

HARBORS, WHARVES AND BRIDGES.

The Committee on Harbors, Wharves and Bridges submitted the following report:

CHICAGO, November 29, 1909.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

GENTLEMEN—Your Committee on Harbors, Wharves and Bridges begs leave to submit the following report:

A meeting of the committee was held this day to consider the broad question of policy as to whether proposed docks north of the mouth of the Chicago River should be built and owned by the city from the outset, or whether that development should be promoted on the basis of private ownership. It was decided by the committee that this question could not be properly settled without first determining the amount of the expenditure involved.

The Harbor Commission in its report submitted to the City Council March 1, last, while recommending harbor development in this area, stated that no attempt had been made by that Commission to prepare detailed plans or estimates. Mr. John M. Ewen, Harbor Commissioner, soon after his appointment last spring, pointed out the importance of making these detailed plans and estimates, but he was unable to carry on the work because no appropriation was made therefor. Mr. Ewen told your committee at its meeting today that he thought an appropriation of $5,000 would be sufficient to enable him to make detailed plans for one pier and the estimates of cost thereof. He thinks this work can be completed within sixty or ninety days. It is the opinion of your committee that this work and information is a necessary prerequisite to an intelligent decision of the city's policy with reference to dock development in the area in question. Your committee, therefore, recommends that the Council make provision as soon as possible for the necessary funds. An ordinance is submitted herewith recommending an appropriation of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for that purpose. Your committee recommends the early passage of the ordinance in order that the work of preparing plans and estimates of cost of pier construction may proceed forthwith.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) CHARLES M. FOELL,
Chairman.

The following ordinance was submitted with the foregoing report:

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That there is hereby appropriated from Miscellaneous Receipts for the year 1909 the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars, to be expended under the direction of the Committee on Harbors, Wharves and Bridges, by John M. Ewen, Chicago Harbor Commissioner, for the purpose of making expert engineering investigation as to the cost of the construction of piers north of the mouth of the Chicago River, as contemplated in the report of the Chicago Harbor Commission heretofore submitted to this Council, and for the preparation of detailed plans and specifications for the construction of such piers.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage.

Unanimous consent was given for the immediate consideration of the said report.

Ald. Foell moved to refer the said report and ordinance to the Committee on Finance.

The motion prevailed.

SEVENTH WARD.

Ald. Snow presented the following correspondence, which was ordered printed and referred to the Committee on Finance:

November 24, 1909.

Hon. R. R. McCormick, Pres., Sanitary District of Chicago, American Trust Bldg., Chicago:

DEAR SIR—At the meeting of the City Council held November 22d, Hon. Theodore K. Long, Alderman from the Sixth Ward, presented and had published a letter from Mr. Wallace G. Clark, one of the Board of Trustees of the Sanitary District, in which this statement appears, referring to Hyde Park: "Would say that after talking with President McCormick I see no reason why the Sanitary District, if requested by the City of Chicago, cannot install the various arc circuits necessary to properly light that portion of Chicago if the City would assume the obligation for such installation. The Sanitary District would charge the City of Chicago the minimum price, the same as our contract with the City of Blue Island, where we not only furnish current but have installed the necessary installations."

In connection with this suggestion from Mr. Clark I note in the Saturday Evening Call, a weekly paper, of the issue of November 13th, that Mr. Clark, in the course of an address delivered before the Woodlawn Business Men's Association, is referred to as follows: "He (Mr. Clark) referred to the statement made by Mr. Carroll of the lack of funds on the part of the City to install and maintain more lights, and stated that the Drainage District of Chicago stood ready to take upon itself the doing of this work; that they had the money, they had the power. They stood ready to enter into a contract with the City or with the Association to light Sixty-third street and adjacent property, even to the installing, and maintaining complete care over all which pertains thereto, at a much less expense than was now paid by the City." In the same paper of November 20th an editorial reference is made to this proposition from Mr. Clark, reading as follows: "It was learned that it was possible to secure more and better light for less money than is now being paid for light by the City of Chicago if the electricity from the Drainage District could be installed. It was also learned that the reason this power was not installed was because the City had not the money to pay for the installation. It was further learned that the Sanitary District had the money and stood ready to install the service provided the City would issue the order for the work."

The City Council, upon receipt of the letter referred to it by Alderman Long and written by Mr. Wallace G. Clark, adopted a resolution directing the Finance Committee of the City Council to enter into negotiations with the Sanitary District for the purpose of arranging for the City to take advantage of the proposition suggested by Mr. Clark. I will be pleased, therefore, if you will state whether the Sanitary District is prepared to submit a proposition to the City of Chicago along the line of the suggestion made by Mr. Clark in his letter referred to, or, better yet, along the line of the suggestion made in the public address referred to, provided the newspaper report is correct, looking toward the installation of an electric lighting service for the City of Chicago, the cost of installation to be borne by the Sanitary District, and the City of make such payment as would be reasonable for the service rendered, including the necessary allowance for interest and depreciation on the plant investment.

If the Sanitary District is prepared to do this, or is even willing to discuss the matter with the City of Chicago, I would suggest that we be so notified and that a committee be appointed from the Trustees of the Sanitary District to meet with a sub-committee of the Finance Committee of the City Council for the purpose of taking the matter up with a view to reaching a mutual understanding by which both corporate bodies may be benefited. So far as I am aware in all of the negotiations upon other matters between the two bodies no proposition of the kind suggested has ever been submitted, but I am quite confident that the City of Chicago will be willing to meet the Sanitary District upon such terms for the service indicated as will be advantageous to both bodies.

Truly yours,

(Signed) B. W. SNOW.

Chairman, Committee on Finance.

THE SANITARY DISTRICT OF CHICAGO,
CHICAGO, November 29, 1909.

Hon. B. W. Snow, Chicago:

DEAR SIR—Thank you for your letter of November 24. I will transmit it to the board at the next meeting.

The letter of Mr. Clark to Alderman Long has my hearty endorsement. It seems to me that the public policy in this case is perfectly clear. The water power of the Sanitary District belongs to the people. The best public use to which it can be put is in lighting the streets of Chicago. The City of Chicago is without funds to extend its lighting system. The finances of the Sanitary District are in first-class condition, therefore they should be used to provide lights for the streets of Chicago insofar as such use will not interfere with the accomplishment of the primary purpose of the Sanitary District, which is sanitation.

You and I and others were earnest workers for a new charter which might bring Chicago the benefits and economies of consolidation. The charter having failed, it behooves us to bring the economies and benefits to the public insofar as possible through the existing agencies of government. What can be a better arrangement than for the street lighting of Chicago by the Sanitary District along the line which will get the greatest amount of service for the least amount of money? The present plan, whereby the Sanitary District is furnishing the current to the City of Chicago and to other municipalities is a great advance over conditions five years ago, but it is still far short of perfection.

You are slightly in error in supposing no proposition had ever been made to the City for the Sanitary District to bear part of the financial burden of the electrical equipment for street lighting. Four years ago when the present contract between the City of Chicago and the Sanitary District of Chicago was under discussion, the Sanitary District of Chicago offered to deliver the current to the various substations of the city, putting in transmission lines at its own expense, and charging the city the actual cost of transmission, which plan has been so successful and economical in the contracts with the Park Boards, Morgan Park, Cicero, Berwyn and Blue Island.

The city authorities of that date were unfavorable to such an arrangement and insisted upon the city building its own transmission lines. This stand was a mistake, which has resulted in the expenditure by the City of Chicago and by the Sanitary District of Chicago of a great deal of unnecessary money. The other plan would have saved the duplication of transmission lines and allowed the same lines and the same outlay of money to have served several different purposes.

For instance, as it now is the City and the Sanitary District each have a sub-station on Fullerton avenue not a mile apart. The City has a transmission line and the Sanitary District has two.

Recently it was agreed between our electrical department and yours to connect the two stations with the idea of their supplementing each other in case of interruption of either's transmission lines. Had this arrangement been made a year ago one of the three transmission lines could have been omitted at a very marked saving. On 35th street, from Western avenue to Ashland avenue, on one set of poles there are two city transmission lines, and one Sanitary District overhead transmission line, while underground the Sanitary District maintains a cable. There is an unnecessary expense approximating fifty per cent in this case.

You may have noticed that the Lincoln Park Commissioners have recently installed an electric lighting system from Lincoln Park down the Lake Shore drive, and Lincoln Park boulevard to Ohio street. This lighting system is reached over transmission lines running from Western avenue and 31st street north to Fullerton avenue, east to the lake and again south to Ohio street. The unnecessary waste in material and in frictional losses must be apparent to everyone. There are cases where, in its commercial business, the Sanitary District is running distribution lines as much as a mile to supply customers next door to some city station. The Bloomingdale road line of the Sanitary District runs directly past the Springfield avenue power station which burns coal to supply itself with electric light. It is not necessary for me to continue these illustrations indefinitely. I have mentioned these few merely for the purpose of showing that, for the amount of money already expended for the two bodies, much greater public benefit might have been derived.

Now that the subject is opened, let us try to come to terms which will result as nearly as possible in creating a system to furnish current to all the public institutions in Cook county at the lowest possible cost.

If no better plan can be agreed upon than to have the Sanitary District finance the equipment of electric lighting circuits in parts of Chicago where no electric light now is, I, personally, will be willing to consent to such an arrangement, but I would vastly prefer to have the matter handled along lines which experience and common sense must show to be the most feasible, and I, therefore, make the following proposition, which I will recommend to our board as advantageous for all parties: Let the Sanitary District purchase from the City of Chicago for cash the 12,000 volt transmission lines necessary to bring the current to the city's sub-stations; let the Sanitary District purchase the sub-stations and electrical equipment therein and contract to supply current to the city circuits at the present price, plus an agreed charge to cover the cost of transmission and delivery of current upon the arc systems of the City. I will guarantee that from such an arrangement the City will be given current on its arc circuits at a price less than the present cost. The money paid by the Sanitary District to the City for these transmission lines and sub-stations can then be expended by the City in enlarging and increasing the number of its present arc circuits.

This plan will provide the needed lights; will lessen the cost of current to the City and will provide for the Sanitary District transmission lines and sub-stations which are needed for the sale of its surplus current.

I am thoroughly convinced that the City should begin installing electric apparatus in its pumping stations. To a large extent the use of water is in the day time, so the electricity which is used in the City at night in lighting its streets, in the day time could be used in pumping its water. It is perhaps unnecessary to go into details to show the great economy thus obtained. The fact that the City is paying $15.00 a horsepower a year for electricity for lighting purposes alone, and would only be asked to pay $26.40 for electricity to run both its water works and its electric lighting system should be significant.

It will be remarked, I presume, that the pumping load and the lighting load would cross and form a peak. This is true, but I am sure in a much less measure than is generally believed. At all events it will be a great economy to use the electricity as available and operate the most efficient of the steam plants during the time of peak load. Such a procedure is common in the southern Atlantic states, where water power is very generally used, and where one will sometimes see an electric motor and a steam engine attached to the same shaft and working together during low water to furnish the requisite power for manufacturing.

The central station method of producing power to be consumed through motors has established its economy, not only in the large public service corporations in our cities, but in large factories where one power plant generates current to be used in motors in all parts of the plant with three times the total capacity of the generators.

Do not understand me to say that the City should forthwith scrap all of its steam machinery and install electric apparatus. My idea is that the electric apparatus should be installed piece by piece in the stations where the oldest and least efficient machinery has already outlived its usefulness, and, that the plant should be developed along comprehensive lines as the occasion arises, and that sufficient steam equipment should be preserved for emergency purposes.

These views come from extended study and several years' experience, and are fully shared by our entire engineering and electrical departments.

Aside from whatever profits may be derived from the sale of power, I have no hesitation in saying, without fear of any kind of successful contradiction, that a comprehensive use of the water power of the Sanitary District for public purposes by all the governmental bodies in Cook County will result in an economy of not less than one million dollars per year.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours sincerely,

(Signed) ROBERT R. MCCORMICK.

The Honorable Mayor and City Council:

GENTLEMEN—The Special Park Commission herewith transmits to your Honorable Body a warranty deed executed by Arthur W. Dickinson and his wife, conveying to the City of Chicago for park purposes a triangular tract of land 202 feet by 328 feet, bounded by 50th avenue, Dickinson avenue and Belle Plaine avenue.

REPORT CONCERNING TELEPHONE METERS.

The following is a report and communication submitted with a report from the "Telephone Meter Commission," ordered published and referred to the Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light (page 1851):

ROBERT W. HUNT & CO., ENGINEERS.

National Measured Service Company, Chicago, Ill.:

GENTLEMEN—We beg to hand you herewith report of our inspection and test of mechanical and electrical efficiency of your telephone meter No. 1806.

Telephone meter No. 1806 is a combined meter and meter-reading transmitter for measured telephone service.

Figure 1 shows in outline a substation with the meter attached as installed in our office by your representative, a line to the central Office C, and a special plug fitted with the receiving apparatus peculiar to the system. The normal line signalling circuits have been omitted for the sake of clearness.

Description of Meter.

Meter No. 1806 consists of—

1. A registering lever, which when pulled down, advances a train of counter wheels one unit, and when released operates a vibrating spring, which intermittently closes a shunt over the telphone set, causing a buzzing sound on the circuit. This buzzing sound is a positive signal to the central telephone operator, and also to the subscriber, that the subscriber has registered one telephone call.

In Figure 1 the contacts shown at 1 represent the vibrating springs of the meter, 9 is a small impedance coil to lessen the intensity of the buzzing sound accompanying the act of registration.

2. Another function of the meter is to make at the telephone company's central office, at such times as may be desired, a record of the subscriber's meter reading. To this end, the surfaces of the counter wheels are provided with a series of projections whose number and position on any line parallel to the axis of the wheels, varies with every reading.

A traveling contact 2 in Figure 1 is caused to traverse these projections by a spring-driven train whose motion is controlled by an escapement. A handle projecting from the box winds the spring and when it is released the contact 2 traverses the series of counter wheels, making and breaking the circuit according to the projections which it encounters in its motion. At the central office a special plug, 6; battery, 3, and relay, 4, are provided. Obviously this relay will respond to makes and breaks of contact 2. The relay, 4, controls a local circuit including a battery, 8, and a tape register, 5. As the projections on the counter wheels are arranged to a certain code, the tape printer will give the meter reading at any time the contact, 2, is operated.

From the above description, the operation of the meter is apparent. A subscriber having obtained his party in the regular way, is told by the central telephone operator to register. On his pulling the registering lever down, the counter wheels are advanced one unit, and on the back stroke of the lever spring, 1, is set in vibration. This vibration gives to the operator an audible signal.

At stated periods when a record of the meter reading is desired by the telephone company, the special plug, 6, is inserted into the subscriber's line jack; he is called to the telephone and is requested to pull the handle at the right of the meter case, and let it go. As the handle comes to its normal position, the meter reading is printed on the tape in response to the makes and breaks of the traveling contact, 2.

The electrical circuits of this meter are simple, and it can, with but few unimportant exceptions to be noted later, be attached to any standard telephone circuit without any change in the existing equipment. In practically all switchboard circuits used by both the Bell and Independent companies, the cut-off relay gives a line free from bridges between the line jack and the subscriber's station, so that the plug, 6, and its associated devices will work over such a line.

In a few circuits, such as that used by the Stirling Electric Co., a high resistance bridge is left on the line even when the cord is in the line jack. In such cases a cut-off jack could be inserted in the line between such a bridge and the cable and the meter readings taken from the jack.

Battery consumption of this device is negligible. The only time any battery is used is when meter readings are taken, the registration signal being made by the ordinary talking battery. The special batteries, 3 and 8, shown in Figure 1 may be the regular central office battery.

Aside from the installation of the meter, there is no interference with the subscriber's use of the telephone, except by the interruption in his service due to the act of registering. Inspection of Figure 1 will show that aside from the use of the meter for either registration or recording, it is distinct from the telephone circuit. The meter can be attached without interference with a telephone having any talking circuit, and does not introduce any additional bridge across the line as is done by some other devices.

Test of Operation.

Telephone meter No. 1806 was submitted for inspection and test on May 11th, 1909.

The meter was connected into office telephone service and tested through all of the operations for which the meter is designed. The meter was operated and recorded approximately 19,500 registrations (representing several years' use), at the end of which time the registering lever, pawl, spring and rivet were inoperative.

The mechanical construction of the meter, as judged from meter No. 1806 submitted, offers considerable ground for criticism. If installed in its present form it would undoubtedly entail a large maintenance expense. Specific instances of parts which would cause trouble are:

Counter Wheels.

The gearing between the counter wheel is imperfect; there is far too much lost motion between them, and they move rather hard when three or more drums are moved at the same stroke of the registering lever, such as would be the case in registering from 2,999 to 3,000. So far as the test has progressed, we have not observed that the faulty gears have affected the accurate transmission of the meter reading. It is our opinion, however, that the fault in this train of gears can and should be remedied. A stop on the last of the chain of counter wheels make it impossible to run the wheels beyond 9,999; a subscriber cannot, therefore, operate the meter so that the reading at the time a record is taken is less than it rightfully should be.

Traveling Contact.

It is our opinion that the parts making up the traveling contact are too light; this is a very important electrical connection, the contact being in series with the telephone circuit. Any failure of the connection to close will render the telephone set inoperative.

Pawl and Ratchet Action.

The pawl rivet should be placed in position on the registering lever in a permanent and mechanical manner. The pawl spring should be re-designed to meet the conditions of continual service.

In meter No. 1806 the pawl rivet was first observed to be loose when the meter had been worked and recorded about 12,000 times. The pawl spring lost its stiffness and had to be rebent when the number of registrations were about 7,500. Either the weakening of the spring or the loosening of the rivet will cause this meter to become inoperative.

Registration Lever.

Due to roughness of lug on vibration spring, the registration lever sometimes stuck in a position which held the vibrating springs together, and when in this position made a short circuit across the telephone set which would necessitate the operator calling the attention of the subscriber.

General.

This meter No. 1806 which has been submitted to us has the above-mentioned mechanical faults, which prohibit its use for continuously and accurately recording and transmitting the number of accumulated calls. However, if a meter involving the same principles was produced, in which the faults above mentioned were overcome, and which was constructed in a thoroughly workmanlike and substantial manner, the following conclusions would be justifiable.

Conclusions.

1. Such a meter would be suitable for use to replace the service of the present nickel or token box type given by the Chicago Telephone Company. In our opinion, the slowing down of the service due to the time necessary for the subscriber to operate the meter, would make its use in connection with business telephones a question of policy.

2. Such a meter could be installed on any telephone line without interfering with the subscriber's use of the telephone, except for the time required for him to register, and would give him at his station an accurate, visible record of the total number of calls made by him, and for which he has to pay.

3. The central office wiring in any exchange would not have to be changed owing to the installation of such a meter on its subscriber's lines, the apparatus required at the central office peculiar to this meter being in the nature of an addition to, rather than a change in the existing central office equipment.

4. Such a meter would accurately and correctly record the number of registered calls at the subscriber's station, and transmit accurately the accumulated number of such calls to the central office.

5. The registration signal of meter No. 1806 is distinct and positive and cannot be readily counterfeited, except by tapping the telephone wires. Neither can a signal to the operator be given without registering, nor can the complete operation of registering be performed without giving the signal.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT W. HUNT & COMPANY

CHICAGO, October 25, 1909.

National Measured Service Company, Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—We beg to hand you herewith report of the inspection and test of telephone meter No. 1859, this report being supplementary to our report of May 17th, 1909.

Telephone meter No. 1859 was submitted to us for test Sept. 24th, 1909. This meter is built in general, according to the principles embodied in meter No. 1806, but having a more rigid and workmanlike construction.

The meter was connected into office telephone service and was tested through all of the operations for which the meter is designed.

Meter was operated and recorded more than 27,000 registrations, representing several years' use, at the end of which time the registering lever, pawl and spring were still operative and showed no signs of loosening or weakening.

There is some lost motion between the counting wheels, apparently as much as in the former meter tested, but this lost motion is not enough in any case to affect the accurate transmission of the meter reading.

The recording device was operated successfully more than 240 times, representing more than twenty years' service.

Respectfully submitted,

CHICAGO TELEPHONE COMPANY,
November 29, 1909.

Hon. John J. Hanberg, Commissioner of Public Works; Hon. Edward J. Brundage, Corporation Counsel; Hon. B. W. Snow, Chairman, Finance Committee:

DEAR SIRS—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter November 27th, 1909, as follows:

"We, the undersigned committee, provided for in the ordinance granting a franchise to the Chicago Telephone Co., passed by the City Council, November 6th, 1907, to pass upon the question of meters for use on measured service telephones, have in our possession two reports from Robert W. Hunt & Co., engineers, on the mechanical and electrical efficiency of a telephone meter, of which we enclose copies to you.

"We are advised in these reports that a meter has now been devised, meeting the requirements of the ordinance, and we hereby order the Chicago Telephone Co. to comply with the said ordinance by installing upon the premises of the lessee or subscriber, a practical meter which will accurately and correctly record the number of outgoing messages or conversations. Our conclusions are based on the engineers' reports."

The engineers referred to in your letter, Messrs. Robert W. Hunt & Company, represent the National Measured Service Company, who desire to have the Telephone Company adopt their meter.

In the first report of these engineers, May 17th, 1909, they say that the meter has "mechanical faults which prohibit its use for continuously and accurately recording and transmitting the number of accumulated calls."

Your decision of July 6th, 1909, was that "the meter submitted did not comply with the provisions contained in said ordinance, nor was its mechanical construction complete."

In the engineers' supplementary report of October 25th, 1909, upon their inspection and test of a meter "having a more rigid and workmanlike construction," they say that "the meter was connected into office telephone service, and was tested through all the operations for which the meter is designed."

From the reports and the facts, as we now have them, it can hardly be said that, in the words of the ordinance, "a meter has been devised and proven effective in actual use for accurately and correctly recording outgoing messages or conversations."

Since the date of the adoption of the telephone ordinance, November 6th, 1907, the Telephone Company has applied itself diligently and continuously to the task of developing and producing a satisfactory telephone meter to be installed upon the premises of the subscriber, in connection with measured service lines.

The inspection and tests of the meter which we have produced have been much more extensive than those described in the supplementary report above referred to, and they warrant us in introducing the meter into the Chicago Exchange for a broader actual service test, in the expectation that it will meet the requirements of your instructions of the 27th inst., to install a practical meter which shall accurately and correctly record the number of outgoing messages or conversations.

We are proceeding accordingly with all possible dispatch.

Yours truly,

(Signed) B. E. SUNNY
President.
